Friends Try Vainly To Save Drowning Raphael Village Boy

Theodore (Teddy) Cruz, 14-year-old son of a Hamilton Air Force Base master sergeant, drowned Saturday in a small pond on private property near Raphael Village, despite frantic rescue efforts by two young companions.

The youth sank and reappeared several times before vanishing from sight. The tragedy occurred at about 4:15 p.m.

Teddy was one of seven children of M/Sgt. and Mrs. Joseph J. Cruz of 640 San Jose boulevard, Raphael Village. His father is a member of the 78th Air Base Group Band Squadron.

Deputy Sheriffs M. J. Baker and Gerald Fries said the Cruz boy swam to the middle of the approximately 400-square-foot pond while his neighborhood friends, Michael Hevron, 14, of 622 San Jose boulevard and Robert Ackerman, 13, of 677 Owens drive, waded in shallow water.

The pond, about 10 feet deep in the middle, is at the end of a fire trail one-half mile south of Raphael Village on property of Trousdale Construction Co., according to the officers. They said it is fenced on three sides.

Deputy Baker said the dead boy's companions gave this account of the tragedy:

Teddy swam out to deep water and shouted at them to join him. Suddenly he began gasping for breath and yelling for help, then disappeared momentarily. When he reappeared, they reached out and handed him a stick.

In grabbing the stick, he

FAIR WEATHER EXPECTED TO CONTINUE

There is a possibility of one or two days of light rain for northern California this week, but the Bay Area will have fair weather through tomorrow, the weatherman predicted today.

The weather bureau foresees considerable cloudiness and possible sprinkles on the extreme northern coast late today or tonight. However, tomorrow should be fair over almost all of the state.

Marin continued to bask in the cooler but fair skies that brought this year's biggest crowds to Samuel Taylor Park during the weekend. Ranger Jock Schlotter of Taylor Park estimated 2,000 visitors passed through the park Saturday and Sunday.

Top mercury readings in Marin during the weekend ranged from about 73 to 80 degrees in various communities. This noon, the thermometer in San Rafael registered a cool 70.

Bombers Attack North Iraq Rebels

Insurgents Claim Advances

A government radio broadcast from Baghdad said Iraq Air Force planes bombed the rebel capital at Mosul. A rebel broadcast from Mosul claimed an insurgent victory over government ground forces and said that revolutionary troops were marching on Baghdad.

No details were available on either the bombing or the reported ground battle. Outsiders were totally dependent on rival radio broadcasts and sparse diplomatic dispatches.

But these made it appear that the uprising in Iraq's rich northwestern oilfield area led by Arab Nationalist sympathizer Col. Abdel Wahab Shawaf against the regime of Leftist Premier Abdel Karim Kassem was headed for a bloody showdown.

MIDDAY ATTACK

The Baghdad radio said loyalist fighter-bombers attacked Mosul at midday. But a broadcast from Shawaf's rebels declared that "the bombardment will only make us stand firmer with the revolution."

The rebels also announced over an insurgent "revolutionary radio" said to be in Mosul that their troops were marching on Baghdad.

A later rebel broadcast called Kassem, who led the coup last July that overthrew King Faisal, a "tyrant dictator." It said he had dispatched a "small force" to Mosul, and added that it "has been wiped completely out."

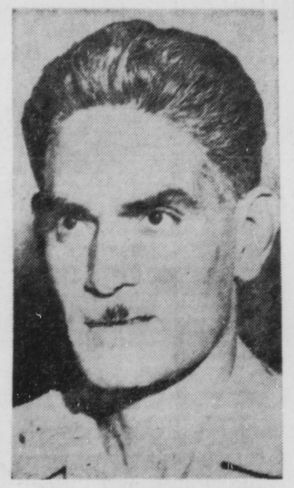

INTERVENTION WARNING

One of Shawaf's first acts after claiming complete control of Mosul, Iraq's third largest city, was to warn against the "grave complications" of any foreign intervention. A broadcast proclamation termed the rebellion "purely internal" and pledged the rebels to neutrality.

The rival radio broadcasts made it appear that Shawaf's attempt to unseat Kassem, accused of pro-communist sympathies, had survived the first 24 hours. The Baghdad government had claimed earlier that the revolt was put down and that Shawaf was killed by his own men. Later, a man whose voice was identified as that of Shawaf came on the rebel Mosul radio to broadcast a denial

$2 Million Suit Against Hopps Begins In S.F.

Trial of a $2,809,701 damage suit by Continental National Bank and Trust Co. of Utah against Stewart B. Hopps, Belvedere, financier, started today in San Francisco.

Judge Louis B. Goodman is hearing the case without a jury in U. S. District Court. The suit was filed Sept. 4, 1956.

The bank in Salt Lake City is receiver for the bankrupt Inland Empire Insurance Co. of Salt Lake City. It claims that Hopps once controlled Inland and that he conspired to divert funds of the company to his own use.

The bank contends Hopps thereby defrauded credits, policy holders and minority stockholders of Inland.

Hopps, through his attorney, J. W. Ehrlich of Corte Madera, declares he never was a stockholder, officer or director of Inland and therefore never could have controlled it.

Five Persons Saved From Sinking Boat

A 34-foot converted cabin cruiser ran aground off Angel Island about 2 p.m. Saturday and sank in Racoon Strait soon after its five occupants jumped to safety aboard the boat of a Sausalito couple.

The Sea Wench, former Navy landing craft owned by Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Singer of San Francisco, went down in shallow water when waves drove it into rocks near Hospital Cove.

CHAIN SNAPS

Singer, a pharmacist, said the sinking capped a series of misfortunes which began when the anchor chain snapped while the boating party was having lunch aboard the vessel.

"Then the battery wouldn't turn over the engine, and the waves drove us onto the rocks," Singer said.

Other small craft in the area headed immediately for the stricken Sea Wench. One was skippered by L. D. Copland of San Francisco, who tied a line to the listing boat and tried to pull it free. But the Sea Wench began settling stern first and the effort was abandoned.

WET BUT UNHURT

The Singers and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bailey of El Cerrito and Mrs. Audrey Bohm of San Francisco, were rescued by a boat owned by Mr. and Mrs. Frederic A. Hough of 86 Cloudview avenue, Sausalito. Wet but unhurt, the five were taken to Clipper Yacht Harbor in Sausalito aboard the Houghs' canvas-cabined outboard.

During the rescue, a Coast Guard helicopter hovered overhead and a Coast Guard launch from San Francisco's Ft. Point headed for the scene.

"There were plenty of boats around," Singer said. "We weren't frightened."

The Sea Wench, valued by Singer at $5,000, was not insured. He said he purchased a ship-to-shore radio Saturday, but hadn't had time to install it.

Soldavini, Morgan File For Election

San Rafael City Clerk W. L. (Lynn) Morgan and Tax Collector-Treasurer Angelina Soldavini filed their nomination papers today to officially throw their hats in the ring for re-election in April.

With filing deadline only four days away, four announced candidates were still in the process of getting enough nomination petitions to complete their filing. These include Charles W. Aby and Machael McLean for city councilman; Thomas P. Boyd, for city attorney, and Bill Thompson, radio announcer, who has indicated he is interested in running for the board of education.

No "dark horses" have appeared thus far in the various races, but last-minute candidates are possible because filing deadline is 5 p.m. Friday.

The only contests that have shaped up so far are as follows:

City council — Incumbents Aby and Fred Jensen, and newcomer Michael McLean. Two to be elected.

Police chief—Chief Frank Kelly and Lt. Charles Chiesa.

Three Shots Fired At Prowler Fleeing Downtown Novato

A Marin County sheriff's deputy fired three shots Saturday night at a prowler in Novato's Grant avenue business district, but the man, described as a "very fast sprinter," made good his escape.

Deputy M. L. Baker said he and Deputy Gerald Fries were patrolling the downtown area east of Highway 101 about 10:30 p.m. when they saw a man dart across Nugent lane into the walkway of the Grant avenue Patio.

Barker got out of the patrol car to investigate and the man started running. The deputy chased him, shouting, "Halt!" and "Sheriff's office!" But the man kept on running.

A shot fired by Baker into the air failed to stop the sprinter. So did two more shots aimed at his legs as he dashed behind the Novato Community Club and vanished.

Supervisors Favor Bay Authority 4-0

Final tally was 4 to 0 after William D. Fusselman left the room after the endorsing motion was made but before the roll had been called. He explained he was not prepared to vote either for or against the authority today, even after hearing more than two and one-half hours of discussion this morning and an hour and a half last Friday.

Fusselman has maintained he believes in the idea of the authority in principle, but thinks the Golden Gate Bridge probably should be excluded.

He said he would not "pass" his vote because under Robert's Rules of Order a passed vote is considered in the affirmative. He left the room over the strong protest of Chairman Walter R. Castro.

The endorsement came after representatives of the Golden Bate Bridge and Highway District had presented lengthy arguments against inclusion of the bridge. Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy, author of the bill, SB576, also spoke.

Marin bridge directors Matt Graham and Leland Murphy opened the discussion.

Graham held the authority, which would take over operation of bridges, airports and seaports in the Bay Area, would disfranchise residents of Mendocino and Del Norte Counties, which are in the bridge district, but not in the authority area.

He said the authority provides no vote by the taxpayers, makes no provision for Gate

'Some Troops Can Stay In Berlin'--Nikita

BERLIN (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev declared today he would be agreeable to stationing a protective garrison of neutral troops in West Berlin if the Allies would end their occupation of the city.

Khrushchev told an East Berlin rally that such a neutral garrison could guarantee the free city status of West Berlin —but must not interfere in its internal life.

Alternatively, the Soviet leader offered to set up a security garrison of American, British and French as well as Soviet troops.

Khrushchev specified that the number of troops stationed in West Berlin—whether the West elected to have a neutral or a Big Four garrison—would have to be held to a minimum.

He urged the allies to agree to end their occupation of West Berlin.

"Some people are afraid that the freedom and independence of West Berlin would be threatened," he said. 'But we are prepared to join with the Western powers to guarantee the freedom of the city."

Previously the Soviet Union had suggested that U.N. observers keep a watch on Berlin after it becomes a completely demilitarized city.

YOUNGER GENERATION

'COME ON, BOYS'

Youths Look For A Fight--Get One

It all started, said Deputy Sheriff William Christensen, when one of the youths, 18-Berkeley, pounded on the door of an outdoor telephone booth year-old William P. Lipps of in which Eule White, 48, was making a call.

White, who arrived from Oregon with some logging buddies recently in search of work at Olema, kept right on talking. And Lipps, who wanted to place a call himself, kept right on pounding.

"Get the hell out of there! I want to make a call!" White quoted the youth.

When he finally emerged from the booth, the logger was felled by a right hand blow to the head. He injured his right knee on the curb fronting Sir Francis Drake boulevard between Sundberg's Inn and Joe's Place.

Offering Lipps moral support from a car parked nearby were his three companions, Stanton G. Friedman, 19, and James M. Cooney, 18, both of Berkeley, and Robert A. Fansler, 18, of El Cerrito.

Smarting from the blow, White got to his feet and limped into Sundberg's without saying a word.

"Come on boys, I need your help," he told his logger friends, some 15 to 20 strong.

With fists swinging, the loggers poured out of the tavern. The four youths locked themselves in Cooney's car, but the maneuver failed to deter the gang from the inn. They smashed the car windows, forced open the doors and tore into the teen-agers.

When their work was finished, the band of loggers returned to their beer. The East Bay youths, their shirts torn and

3-Car Crash Causes Huge Tieup On 101

A three-car rear-end collision on Highway 101 just north of Terra Linda caused a traffic snarl last evening that extended for miles toward Novato.

Injured in the crash were Theresa Marques, 20, of South San Francisco, and Mrs. Mary Guehennec, 44, of San Mateo, passengers in a southbound car driven by Mrs. Marques' husband, Raymond, 22.

The other drivers were Harold M. Buck, 29, of 50A Alexander street, San Rafael, and A/2c James J. Sostack, 21, of the 79th Supply Squadron, Hamilton Air Force Base.

Mrs. Marques was bruised on the forehead and right leg. Mrs. Guehennec suffered a strain neck. Both were treated at San Rafael General Hospital.

In an earlier North Marin accident yesterday, Mrs. Laura Biederman, 48, of 1552 South Novato boulevard, Novato, was slightly injured in a two-car rear-end crash on that street, near Center road. She was riding in a northbound auto driven by Gordon H. Biederman, 25, of the same address, when it hit the rear of one driven by George C. Sweet, 54, of Vallejo.

The Highway Patrol said Sweet had stopped and apparently was deciding whether to make a left turn when the accident happened at 11:40 a.m. Mrs. Biederman did not require hospital treatment.

Senate Demos Order Defense Budget Probe

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Senate Democratic leaders today ordered a sweeping investigation of President Eisenhower's new defense budget and touched off major debate by challenging his military judgment.

The senatorial battle over the adequacy of U.S. defenses in the face of the mounting Berlin crisis was sparked by announcement that the nation's military chiefs have expressed "reservations" about funds allotted to fighting forces under the President's new defense budget.

Both Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, Army chief of staff and Gen. Randolph Mc C. Pate, Marine commandant, complained that their forces are being cut too much. Taylor declared Army personnel resources were "inadequate to meet in full the requirements of their assigned missions."

President Eisenhower has insisted that the nation's defenses are adequate.

Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson announced that his preparedness subcommittee will open hearings Wednesday to "get the truth with the bark off" on the defense budget.

The defense debate erupted on the Senate floor as the Armed Services Committee unanimously approved a four-year extension of the draft act to July 1, 1963. The committee rejected proposals for modification at this time because of what it termed a "time of crisis."

2 AWOL Prisoners Return To Jail

Two county jail prisoners on work-furlough, who failed to return to their jail cells Saturday night, trudged into the sheriff's office about 5 o'clock this morning and gave themselves up.

Leroy P. Grunhauser, 20, of 57 Wreden avenue, Fairfax, and Eugene James Nelson, 25, of 652 McClay road, Novato, were back in jail today. Normally, they would be released every morning to work and would return at night and on weekends to serve their sentences.

Grundhauser was sentenced last September to one year in jail for burglary. Nelson was sentenced last month to 90 days for violation of probation from a previous offense.

Fire Damages Apartment In Fairfax

Fire destroyed the living room chesterfield in an apartment at 107 Live Oak avenue, Fairfax, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. James Helmick and caused an estimated $1,000 damage yesterday.

Cause of the fire was listed by the Fairfax Fire Department as a cigarette which may have smoldered in the chesterfield some time before the fire was noticed. The Helmicks were not at home when the blaze broke out.

The apartment, owned by Vincenzo Pantaleoni of 95 Live Oak avenue, had smoke damage throughout, buckled living room floor and scorched living room walls and window casements.

Opinion poll returns thus far indicate regular display advertising is read all or part of the time by nearly 100 per cent of readers, with grocery market ads and classified also attracting 90 per cent or more.

On the editorial page, "Cynic's Corner" cartoon attracts the greatest number of regular readers. It is followed closely by "What Our Readers Say," the daily editorial cartoon and the I-J editorials.

Snow Again Swirls Over Great Lakes, Elsewhere It Rains

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Winter flexed its muscles again today with snow squalls swirling across the already overburdened Great Lakes region and a warning of heavy snow in upper New York state.

South of the snow, rain hit much of the East during the night from Mississippi north to Illinois, the Ohio Valley and the lower Great Lakes.

The new snow, generally light, came on top of one of the worst late season snowstorms in decades in parts of the Midwest. The storm last Thursday and Friday dumped up to 20 inches of snow across northeast Iowa, Wisconsin and Michigans upper peninsula. At least 46 deaths were blamed on the storm.

2,000 Attend Opening Of Greenbrae Lanes

More than 2,000 persons thronged the new Greenbrae Lanes bowling alley over the weekend as the new $800,000 establishment opened "quietly" for business.

Formal opening ceremonies are expected to be held early next month. The business is located on Sir Francis Drake boulevard near Highway 101 in Larkspur.

Thomas R. Coates, manager, said the bowlers continued to knock down pins until 5 a.m. Saturday and Sunday. He said the only "bugs" found in the partially completed plant were in the 24 new $8,000 pin setting machines. He said a crew led by Frank Arbo, chief pin setter mechanic, worked around the clock to clear up the trouble by Saturday afternoon.

Coates said the high score for the weekend was made by Reno Ghilotti of San Rafael, who bowled a 223 game.

Marin Citian Knife Victim

Griffin, who was treated at Marin General Hospital, told officers he was attacked by a group of men who feared he would report them for gambling. Sheriff's deputies were unable to find any gambling in progress at the housing project.

Earlier, deputies discovered Frederick C. Barnes, 26, of San Francisco, lying in front of the Waldo Market in Marin City, suffering from minor cuts of the face, chin and left forearm. Barnes insisted he had not been in a fight. He claimed he fell on a broken bottle. He was treated at Marin General Hospital.

SOME FREIGHT TRAINS ARE TOO DARN LONG

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—The automobiles lined up yesterday while a Union Pacific freight train passed a crossing.

Inmate Found Hanging From Belt In Cell

A 21-year-old San Quentin Prison inmate was found unconscious this morning, dangling from a belt-noose he had fastened to bars of a holding cell where he was placed last night.

Edward Le Clair imprisoned in August, 1957, on a 6-month-to-5-year term for stealing a car in Contra Costa County, was discovered at 6:10 a.m. by correctional officer D. P. Fichera and R. C. Summy, medical technician assistant.

He had been checked every five minutes for fear he might try to take his life, said Associate Warden W. D. Achuff. His rescuers loosened the belt from outside the cell, then revived Le Clair by artificial respiration. Later, at the prison hospital, he was reported in satisfactory condition.

Achuff said Le Clair was found bleeding profusely last night from 13 razor cuts on the left arm. The cuts were not serious, however, so the prisoner was placed in the holding cell.

The deputy warden said Le Clair had been in minor trouble at the prison, but there had been nothing until last night to indicate he wished to end his life.

Incorporation Topic In Novato

The proposal for incorporation of the Novato area will be given another public hearing at 7:30 o'clock tonight in a debate sponsored by the Forest Park Improvement Assn. in Room 20 of Lynwood School.

Names of persons invited to participate in the debate have not been announced, but it was indicated that Paul Brindel and Capt. Charles Clarkson, leading opponents of the incorporation proposal, will present the opposition case.

French To Test Bomb

Utilities Tax Fight Hearing Under Way

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A 10-year battle between private utilities and common taxpayers groups should be settled one way or another during the present session of the Legislature, Assemblyman Glenn Coolidge, (R-Felton) said today.

Coolidge, chairman of a Joint Legislative Committee on Assessment Practices, made that statement in calling to order a full-scale hearing on the hotly-disputed proposal that utilities and common property be taxed on the same basis.

ADEQUATE STUDY

"At least four legislative committees have attacked this problem before it was given to us," Coolidge said. "Tens of thousands of dollars have been spent by the Legislature on assessment - equalization problems.

"It seems clear that nothing would be gained by further study."

He cautioned that if the Legislature did not solve the problem at this session, "court action is a very real possibility."

Coolidge, a real estate operator in private life, scoffed at suggestions that it would be impossible to place a value on utility property.

"It is possible to find the value of any commercial enterprise, big or small," he said.

However, the chairman also said he was "amazed" that anyone would suggest that a utility, with its built-in monopoly features, could be valued "just like a factory."

TAX INEQUITY

He claimed PG&E was faced with a "serious tax inequity" which he said "discriminates against utility customers.

"Our customers are entitled to equity as ratepayers as well as taxpayers. A major factor in rates is taxes."

Gerdes suggested that the committee work out a method of taxing utilities and common property on the same basis and make the change "over a long enough period of time so that the finances of local governments will not be disturbed."

The hearing was touched off by a committee report last month which urged that, over a period of 10 years, all property in California be assessed at about 30 percent of its market value for taxing purposes.

Utilities property is now assessed at about 50 per cent of market value, the report found, and private property at about 25 per cent of sale value.

Details Asked Of Kennedy Bribe Offer

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A second Republican member of the Senate Rackets Committee demanded today that Chief Counsel Robert F. Kennedy reveal names of witnesses who offered political help for his brother if he would go easy on them.

The 32-year-old counsel, whose brother is Sen. John F. Kennedy, (D-Mass.), said Friday that such offers had been made but that he had ignored them and the committee's investigations had proceeded.

Sen. Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind.) voiced the demand today that Robert Kennedy identify the witnesses involved. Sen. Karl E. Mundt, (R-S.D.) sounded the first call Saturday for the counsel to tell all.

Mundt said he would insist that Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) call a meeting promptly so that the situation could be "fully explored and publicly exposed." He called it "by far the most shocking development in the two-year history of our committee."

Channel Markers In Bay Protested

Issuance of a permit to allow the Gallinas Boat Club of Gallinas Village to drive 40 piles as channel markers in San Pablo Bay from the mouth of Gallinas Creek is not expected for several days, a spokesman for the Army Corps of Engineers said today.

March 7 was previously set at as the deadline for written objections to be submitted to the corps of engineers, he said, but one letter from a property owner near Gallinas Creek was received last week, and the deadline has been extended "for a reasonable time" to allow him to make formal protest.

Macmillan To Meet De Gaulle

PARIS (AP) — British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan today began a swing around the capitals of his major allies in search of a Western policy to take into negotiations with the Soviet Union.

Arriving in Paris to confer with President Charles de Gaulle, Macmillan said he feels the Soviets want to negotiate on Berlin.

"The Soviets accept that these immediate problems—Berlin, German, and so on—ought to be settled by negotiations," Macmillan said.

He conceded there are wide differences between the West and the Soviets. He said in view of this, it is all the more important for the Western Allies to get together "to confirm our common policy and purpose."

Paris was Macmillan's first stop. The prime minister returns to London tomorrow night and flies Thursday to Bonn to give West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer a fill-in. On March 19 he arrives in Washington to go over the Western views with President Eisenhower.

At the end of his tour, Macmillan said yesterday, he hopes the West will have concerted "a policy which will be firm and yet flexible enough to reach a successful conclusion of any negotiations."

French Capture Newsman's Killers

ALGIERS, Algeria (AP)—Four nationalist rebels who killed an American and a German and wounded another American in western Algeria last week have been reported killed by French troops.

French troops were sent out to hunt down the killers of Homer Flint Kellems, 65, of Siloam Springs, Ark., and Raimund Airele, a German translater.

Poland Sentences Ex-Nazi To Death

WARSAW (UPI) — One-time Nazi gauleiter Erich Koch was sentenced to death today for the wartime slaying of 76,000 Poles and 200,000 Jews.

When the verdict was announced, the courtroom crowd burst into cheers.

The trial, the longest war-crimes tribunal ever held in Poland and perhaps the last in Europe of a major Nazi, ended just 10 days short of five months. Koch's wife Ilse, was also convicted of war crimes.

Communists Gain In France

PARIS (AP)—After a brief flirtation with President Charles de Gaulle, steady followers of France's Communist party were back in the Red fold today. They may have brought along a few friends.

This was the most striking result of elections held throughout France and many overseas territories yesterday for municipal councilors.

On all fronts the Communists rallied from their setback last fall in the election of the new National Assembly. The Communist percentage of the vote then dropped from the 24 per cent they had maintained in most postwar elections to about 18 per cent.

Returns from the big cities and most of the smaller towns indicated the Reds again took about 1 vote in every 4 yesterday.

W. German Socialist Chief Meets Nikita, Feels Optimistic

BERLIN (AP) — West Germany's Socialist chief, Erich Ollenhauer, met today with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, then declared he thought the Soviets would make every effort to solve the Berlin crisis without war.

Ollenhauer met for two hours with Khrushchev at the latter's invitation. Then the Socialist chieftain held a news conference.

Ollenhauer said he came away optimistic about the prospects of an East-West settlement after the meeting in the Soviet Embassy in East Berlin.

"I have the impression that on the Russian side all efforts will be made to solve the problem peacefully and to avoid a conflict," Ollenhauer told the news conference in West Berlin.

"I came away with the impression that the Soviets are ready to negotiate, and want to do so quickly and are willing to have a thorough debate of concrete proposals from both sides," Ollenhauer said.

"Given good will on both sides I am convinced that a peaceful solution can be found.

6 Girls Injured When Car Plunges Off Bank

Six young girls and a 21-year-old youth were injured at 8:15 p.m. Saturday when their two-door sedan ran off Donohue street in Marin City and plunged 150 feet down an embankment.

The California Highway Patrol said the car, owned by Peter Henderson, 21, of House 550, Marin City, was driven by 14-year-old Deborah Jean Williams of San Francisco.

Miss Williams suffered a possible fracture of the pelvis. Henderson, who was riding in the crowded vehicle, suffered only minor bruises, as did Willie Jean Adams, 15, of House 677; Etta L. Newton, 15, of House 674; Sandra E. Mitchell, 15, of House 730; Rose Beauchamp, 15, of House 722, and Jessie Adams of House 677.

All were taken by ambulance to Marin General Hospital. Miss Williams was transferred to San Francisco General Hospital and the others were released.

San Geronimo Hears Rules On Sewer District

A election to establish a sanitary district for San Geronimo Valley could be held within 60 days after public hearings, 30 persons attending a public meeting at Lagunitas School were told Saturday night.

William L. Desmond, director of sanitation for the Marin County Health Department, and County Counsel Leland H. Jordan attended the meeting called by the Woodacre Improvement Club to discuss procedures necessary to setting up such a district.

Costs involved in setting up the district, reported Desmond, would depend on the size of the area involved. Not until an engineering survey is made would it be possible to predict total cost of the development, he said.

No action was taken at the meeting to start proceedings to form a district. "In fact," said John T. Kielty, improvement club president, "I don't think there is any real movement at this time supporting the idea."

The two county spokesmen merely outlined the mechanics necessary to set up a district, he added.

Needed to put the wheels in motion, would be a petition signed by at least 25 residents. The county board of supervisors then would schedule public hearings and could call for an election after 60 days from the time of the last hearing.

Jordan reported that financing could be handled either through a bond issue financed by the entire district, or by connection and service charges made to district users, or both.

Secretary Arrested, Then It's Hubby's Turn

A 50-year-old legal secretary from Novato had her husband arrested on assault and battery charges Saturday, less than 24 hours after her own arrest on charges of drunkenness, disturbing the peace and resisting arrest.

The secretary, Mrs. Gladys Cooper Crawford of 1530 Indian Valley road, complained to sheriff's deputies Saturday night that her husband, Reginald struck her during an argument in their home.

She signed a citizen warrant for his arrest and he was jailed at 8 p.m. in San Rafael. He faces the added charge of disturbing the peace. Bail was set at $750.

Mrs. Crawford's troubles began in Belvedere about 10:30 p.m. Friday when a bystander reported to Deputy Sheriff Ed Klementovich that she was slapping her teen-age daughter in the parking lot of the Tiburon Playhouse.

Klementovich said the daughter told him it was a personal squabble. And he quoted Mrs. Crawford as saying, "It's none of your business, you lousy cop . . . I'll have the book thrown at you."

The deputy said Mrs. Crawford hurled a volley of vulgar abuse at him, after which he tried to get her into her husband's car. He was assisted by Sgt. Frank Costa and Officer Connie Tarabella of the Belvedere Police Department.

During this effort by the three officers, Klementovich said, Mrs. Crawford gave him a swift kick in the chest.

When her husband showed up, she shouted curses at him, too, the deputy reported.

Mrs. Crawford finally was placed in a patrol car and taken to the county jail, where, officers said, she created another disturbance at the booking desk. She was placed in a padded cell and later released on $600 bail posted by bail bondsman James Stragnola. She is to appear in Marin Municipal Court tomorrow at 1:30 p.m.

The kick Klementovich received caused him such pain he thought a rib had been broken. He was X-rayed at Marin General Hospital, but no fracture was found.

Catholics Dedicate Novato School

Most Rev. Hugh A. Donohoe, auxiliary bishop of San Francisco, officiated. The dedication address was delivered by Rev. John T. Foudy, superintendent of schools for the archdiocese of San Francisco.

A feature of the ceremonies was the participation of four priests who have served as pastors of the Novato church. Among them was Rev. James Kiely, who served the Novato parish from 1904 to 1908 and is now retired and living in Petaluma.

Other former pastors of the parish who took part are Fathers James O'Connor (1941-1944), Denis Kelly (1953-1956) and Aloysius Sullivan (1956).

The school, at Grant and Virginia avenues in Novato, was opened last September and now has an enrollment of 150 children in the three primary grades. A new grade is to be added each year until the school reaches eight grades.

Teaching is by two Ursuline nuns, Mother Mary William, principal, and Mother Mary Florence, and a lay teacher, Nita A. Webb.

Yesterday's ceremony came during the parish's celebration of its 70th anniversary. The Novato church was founded as a mission in 1889.

The burglary was discovered about 4 p.m. yesterday by David Glazer of Greenbrae, father-in-law of Waxman, who manages the Marin Motor Movies in San Rafael.

Police said the break-in occurred sometime during the past week while Waxman and his family were away on vacation. Their home is at 34 Lochinvar road.

Entry was gained by smashing a sliding glass door at the rear of the house, reported Officer John Kingston. He said other money in the house, plus jewelry and a wide variety of valuables were overlooked by the intruder. It was the fourth burglary in the Loch Lomond area within a week.

Marin Couple To Inherit $¼ Million

A San Rafael couple inherit a quarter of an estate estimated to be near one million dollars, under terms of the will of Alice Griffith, San Francisco welfare worker and philanthropist.

The terms of the will were made known yesterday.

One-fourth share of the huge estate was left in trust to William and Catherine Grant of 34 Ridge avenue, San Rafael. Grant was a godson of Miss Griffith. She reared and educated him after he lost his parents as a child.

Mrs. Griffith died Feb. 22 at the age of 94 in her San Francisco home. She was the daughter of Millen Griffith, who arrived in San Francisco in 1849, started a tugboat business and amassed a fortune.

Miss Griffith helped found the Telegraph Hill Neighborhood House, San Francisco's first settlement house, in 1902. She also helped set up the first San Francisco Housing Assn. after the earthquake and fire of 1906, and to establish Bothin Convalescent Home, Garden Hospital and San Francisco's first tuberculosis examination center.

One-half of her estate is to be divided among three nieces; an eighth among three nephews, and the remaining eighth between the San Francisco Foundation and Trinity Episcopal Church.

End Of Pollution Would Restore Fishing Industry

BERKELEY (AP) — A University of San Francisco biology professor says elimination of pollution in San Francisco Bay would permit establishment of a 300 million dollar fishing industry.

Dr. Francis P. Felice told the regional council of the California State Chamber of Commerce Friday that commercial clam beds in the bay yielded high returns early in the century.

But he said the last clam was taken commercially from the bay in 1949; the last oyster in 1947.

Drunk Driving Suspect Jailed After Battle

A drunken driving suspect was arrested by Marin County sheriff's deputies at a Novato drive-in cafe yesterday, but not before a group of youths threatened to come to his aid.

Deputy Charles E. Newman said he drove his patrol car to the Hi-Fi Drive-In on Mirabella avenue after hearing a loud crash about 1:25 a.m.

Newman said Joseph Manuel Cotallo, 20, of 719 Lamont avenue, Novato, had driven his car over a curb, then backed into a power pole guy wire.

As Newman approached the car, he said, a group of youths swarmed around it. One got into the driver's seat and was about to drive away when he was removed from the vehicle.

Newman radioed for assistance and was quickly joined by Sgt. Joseph Mooney and Deputies Ernest Nielsen, Gerald Fries and Newell Snyder.

The officers said Cotallo battled them when they tried to place him in a patrol car. He was subdued by force and taken to San Rafael General Hospital for treatment of an eye cut which the officers said he had suffered earlier in the evening.

Besides drunken driving Cotallo was charged with being drunk in and about an auto and resisting arrest. He was released last night on $813 bail and ordered to appear in Marin Municipal Court at 1:30 p.m. today.

Dulles Takes Spins In Park, Visits Home

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles spent a pleasant weekend, leaving his hospital suite twice for rides through a nearby park. He also visited his home briefly and later discussed the Berlin situation with two aides.

The first trip Saturday afternoon lasted about 30 minutes. In bright sunshine, he rode through Rock Creek Park with Mrs. Dulles. Aides reported he thoroughly enjoyed the outing, his first since he entered Walter Reed Army Hospital Feb. 10 for a hernia operation.

The ride was made a few hours after he resumed X-ray treatments for cancer. The treatments had been suspended since he received an injection of radioactive gold last Tuesday.

Accident Victim Asks $120,000

A San Francisco family is suing a Sausalito woman for $120,000 damages as a result of a two-car collision on Highway 101, south of Corte Madera, one year ago.

Margaret Kane, 18, and her brother Robert Kane, 19, both of San Francisco, filed the suit Friday in Marin Superior Court through their mother, Mrs. Mary Kane. Defendant is Mrs. Sally Short White, 34, of Sausalito.

The mishap occurred March 8, 1958, about one-fourth mile south of Corte Madera. Highway patrol officers said Mrs. White was apparently making a U-turn across the highway when her car was hit broadside by Kane's southbound vehicle.

Miss Kane seeks $100,000 for injuries she says she suffered about the head, face and body, including a fractured right hand. Her brother asks for $20,000 for his injuries.

Mountain Play Tryouts Set

More tryouts for the Mountain Play will be held at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at Park School auditorium in Mill Valley. Major leads for "The Pied Piper" are still open. No more children are needed.

Theater experience is not necessary, according to manager Bob Flanagan, but good voice projection is helpful.

This year, rehearsals will be held in Marin and the emphasis will be on making it a local production. Veteran Mountain Play director Dan Totheroh will direct.

"The Pied Piper" has been produced several times in the nearly half-century of plays presented atop Mt. Tamalpais. Production date will be May 17.

Announce Way To Help Drain All 8 Sinus Cavities Without Discomfort

New decongestant tablet for sinus congestion sufferers acts both to drain clogged sinus cavities and relieve distressing head pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) Announcement has been made of a new tablet development which has the remarkable ability to help drain clogged sinus cavities and thus relieve congestion and pressure. The headaches, pressure pains, stuffed-up head, nasal drip, clogged breathing—all the unrelenting symptoms the sinus sufferer knows so well—are attacked directly by improving drainage of the sinus areas.

Most remarkable of all is the fact that this is accomplished with extraordinary speed and without discomfort of any kind. This new tablet does its remarkable work internally, through the blood stream. It deposits into every drop of blood plasma a new medication which is carried to the sinus area, where it shrinks the swollen doors to the sinus cavities and helps drain away the pain-causing pressure and congestion.

The shrinking substance in this new tablet has been so successful topically in promoting drainage of the sinus cavities that it is now prescribed more widely by doctors than any material for this purpose. This new medication is now available at drug counters without the need for a prescription under the name, Dristan® Decongestant Tablets. Dristan Tablets cost only 98¢ for a bottle of 24 tablets. Buy and use Dristan Tablets with the absolute guarantee that they will drain away pain-causing pressure and congestion of the sinus cavities, relieve the pain and distress, or purchase price will be refunded.

New York Firm Again Tries To Share Guide Dogs Funds

Just six years ago we found it necessary in this space to warn the people of Marin that a New York organization was trying to cash in on contributions which normally would be destined for Marin's Guide Dogs For the Blind, Inc.

We're sorry to report that it is happening again.

Then an organization which changed its name from Guiding Eyes, Inc., to Guide Dogs Foundation For the Blind, blanketed the West with letters requesting donations at exactly the same time as Guide Dogs For the Blind was conducting its annual campaign.

Now an organization dubbing itself Guiding Eyes For the Blind, Inc., is doing the same thing. It must be more than a coincidence that this New York firm, which for all we know is the same old one under another name, sent out letters dated March 2 asking donations. March 2 is the date of the opening of Guide Dogs For the Blind's annual fund campaign.

Now actually we know little or nothing about this New York group. We don't know what facilities they have, how many blind people they furnish dogs to, how they operate. We know a great deal about Guide Dogs For the Blind.

We know that Guide Dogs operates a school just north of San Rafael where they train both dogs and blind people so that they work as a team in carrying on a normal life. We know it doesn't cost the blind person a cent, not even for board and room during the month of training with the dog right there at the school.

We know that Guide Dogs For the Blind has presented 765 dogs to 248 women and 517 men, and trained them to work together. Of these, 134 were war veterans.

We know that last year alone, 111 men and women came to the Marin facilities, learned to use their dogs and went home to a better life. That was the largest number ever to graduate from the school in one year.

We know that a staff of 25 persons, highly skilled and trained, do the entire job of making these people both happy and useful again.

And we know that the only place Guide Dogs gets its money is from generous people of California and other western states. It gets no taxes and no subsidies. This year they are seeking only $10,000 for continued operation.

Now if you are confused about which is Guide Dogs and which is Guiding Eyes or Guide Dogs Foundation, don't worry about it. Just remember this one fact. Guide Dogs For the Blind has only one school, just north of San Rafael. It has no New York or other Eastern connections. It doesn't solicit funds from a New York or Eastern address.

If you want to contribute to Guide Dogs For the Blind, don't send it anywhere out of the state of California. If you want to contribute to the New York outfit, well . . . that's up to you.

Time To Bait Those Amazing Snails

Professional gardeners are warning us that it is time to start putting out snail bait for a new crop of snails. We heed their warnings, of course, but at the same time we must confess to a feeling of amazement that any animal with such a complicated love life is so prolific.

Snails are sexaully ambidextrous — every gentleman snail being also a lady snail. In order to perpetuate their snail species, it is necessary that a he/she snail must have an affair with another he/she snail. The problems of selection and compatibility must be fierce.

It's rather hard to believe that old Slowpoke is a passionate creature. But perhaps he is not so slow after all. Maybe he is just hopelessly confused and who could blame him/her?

Anyway, the snails lay their eggs on their slimy, shiny trails as they glide along. And despite the complications of the snail's love life, there always seems to be an abundance of baby snails.

American Homes Now Boast More Television Sets Than Bathtubs

WE ARE NOT quite sure whether this marks a victory of culture over cleanliness, but a survey showed more American homes now have TV sets — 42,400,000 — than have bathtubs—41,500,000.

10 YEARS AGO

Flanery's Grocery, next to the Blue Rock Hotel in Larkspur, was sold by Mrs. Laura B. Flanery, who was retiring from the grocery business. Purchasers were Lloyd and Elsa Tucker, who changed the name to Tucker's Grocery.

Dave Sanchez, director of the March of Dimes campaign, announced that about $20,000 had been banked as the drive came to a close.

20 YEARS AGO

About 60 Marin County Legionnaires attending a meeting of the County Council of the American Legion voted unanimously in support of the widely-discussed Veterans Memorial Auditorium.

Don Ballard and Joyce Scott of San Rafael were elected president and secretary - treasurer, respectively, of the Assn. of High School Student Bodies, a North Bay organization to improve interschool relations.

To do a good job one needs encouragement. To play a good game, a team needs encouragement not only from the school, but from the public.

I think that good coverage of all high school sports in your newspaper will be an encouragement for the team to play good games with a lot of spirit.

I have closely observed the basketball team at my school and I feel that if the boys know the public is behind them, they will play a better game.

I wish to commend you and your sports staff for the fine coverage of all Marin Catholic basketball games. The articles that appeared in the paper concerning the games have always been true and well written.

In particular, I was quite impressed with your fine coverage of the Marin Catholic-San Rafael game.

I hope this will continue in the future because your readers have been well pleased with these articles.

Long Understood Communism

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

For Norma Murray —

In 1943 I was considered too antagonistic to communism to spend one day in Russia with one of our chaplains and doctors.

In 1944 the Red Cross could not get me into Russia to serve our own American soldiers based there on bomber missions.

In 1947 a man in our State Department took the trouble of locating me under a new name living in New York City to call on me to tell me that I had a great understanding of Russians and all the information I had given him in 1945 before his mission to Moscow had turned out to be correct.

Upon my return to U.S.A. after a year on the Russian border I was criticized for being so antagonistic against "our great ally."

I've understood communism longer than most Americans — and from experience.

Miller Needs New Picture

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In the March 4 edition of your paper an article appeared telling of Rep. Clement W. Miller's January payroll.

What I am primarily concerned with is the unbecoming picture which accompanied that news release. It is a fact that there isn't anybody in the world who, at one time or another, hasn't taken a bad picture.

I am making a sincere public appeal to our Congressman. Please, Mr. Miller, take time out from your busy schedule to visit the photographer and have a better picture taken!

I know that the picture is not representative. It certainly doesn't reflect the seriousness and conscientious, he has so far shown, in carrying out his duties.

What Is Their Moral Premise?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I have been wondering on what moral premise (if any) rests the viewpoint expressed by B. M. Jones in his (or her) remarkable letter condemning the Short-Doyle Act as "socialized medicine" as "regimentation" as "forcing" all of us to pay taxes to be used for the need of some of us.

Perhaps the most basic fact of human development, as opposed to animal existance, lies in mutual aid and cooperation, and this fact, as a moral law, is expressed in the Christian answer to the question, "Am I my brothers keeper?" The answer, of course, for me is, "Yes, I am" and "Yes, we must undertake and pay for community responsibilities concerning the welfare of others."

But for B. M. Jones and others like him, there are many perhaps more cogent reasons, more clearly related to the self-interest, especially material self-interest. One among these is the consideration of the relative costs of easily available mental health services as preventative measures as compared to the costs, to which we are already committed, of care of the seriously mentally ill in state hospitals.

Further, there is the cost, incalculable but very real, of the loss of whatever contributions, economic and social, which these hospitalized mentally ill might be making to the communities they leave behind.

There are probably many other contributions the establishment of the mental health services could bring about which all might be listed under the heading "conservation of human resources," certainly among the most precious of resources we shall ever have to consider.

Sausalito Has More Money From Taxes, Meters, Library And Dogs

Increased bustle and activity in Sausalito could be the cause of increased revenues to the city's coffers as outlined in City Manager Don Duerr's current financial report.

It lists increases like sales tax $6,800; property taxes $4,200; parking meters $1,600.

Then, in succession, court fines $1,000; alcoholic beverage fees $200 and ambulance fees $150. (No connection indicated.)

The report even shows $150 increases from dog licenses and last but not least, in library fines.

TAMALPAIS VALLEY Fire Department is reading the riot act to some of the valley's residents.

Lots of other places in the county might well insist on the same thing.

MILL VALLEY auto dealer Herb Shapiro spent nigh onto three years making regular trips to the city council over disputes involving his property. His regular visits suddenly ceased about a year ago.

Last week, he was back — this time over a dispute with the planning commission on a sign he wanted to erect. As he approached the council rostrum, councilman Peter Behr greeted him with "glad to see you back, Herb. Where have you been?"

The laconic answer, "I've been taking my business elsewhere, thanks."

P.S. His appeal for a sign was denied.

SEEMS WE failed to give credit last week where it was due. In commenting on a magazine ad which used a picture of Berry's in Tiburon as a background, we said the youngsters in the photo were professional models.

Plenty of readers have assured us in no uncertain terms that "models" were in fact local talent. We just plain goofed, for which we apologize.

Miss Aitken, a star prosecutor in the San Francisco district attorney's office, related some facts connected with murder trials which left little to the imagination.

Miss Aitken, incidentally, is a semi-Marinite. She has an el toro which she sails on Belvedere lagoon.

WE ARE DELIGHTED to report that Sausalito councilwoman Marjorie Brady is mended after her close call in an auto crash. Also that husband Col. Brookner Brady is well on the mend after fracturing his arm in the same collision.

There is some talk along Bridgeway that the State Department's protocol division may be consulted to clarify the question of whether a councilman outranks a retired colonel, or vice versa.

SAUSALITO'S RUCKUS'S over sandspit development, suits against arks (and Arques) and squabbles about a new police chief have obscured other impending activities.

There's some talk that John Ostrowski's embattled plan to build an overwater apartment in Shelter Cove may pop up again soon. If so, a repitition of last year's donnybrook is in the making.

SPEAKING OF arks, it is reported that Sam Zakessian has acquired the former Hadjes property now occupied by ramshackle abodes of a non-descrip nature. Same is in the process of demolishing them as time and inclination permit. Operator of Zack's at the foot of Turney street, he has not announced his plans for the area. In the meantime, the semi-demolished structures have been dubbed "Zack's shacks" by local wags. Quite a mouthful.

Both Parties Worked Themselves Into Jam By Refusing Income Tax Boost

The President's budget is now a football in a political scrimmage. Both parties are pretending that they are struggling to balance the budget. In fact neither the Administration nor the Congress shows any sign of being willing to vote the taxes which are absolutely essential if the budget is to be balanced.

As of now, both parties regard as untouchable the income tax rates which were fixed in 1954, the date of the Eisenhower reduction of taxes.

The President's budget plan, if we accept some rather fancy calculations, can be brought into balance — but only if Congress will raise postal rates and increase the gasoline taxes.

As Congress is certain to reject the new taxes, the official theory of the Democrats seems to be that they can balance the budget by cutting down on what the President has asked for in foreign aid.

BOTH PARTIES have now worked themselves into a jam which, considering the state of the world, is not an inspiring thing to look at.

The Republicans have gotten themselves into a position where they must "save" on spending for native American needs — such as education and public facilities, almost certainly also the national defense. But the Republicans, as the great savers, are implored by the President to spend abroad on foreign aid the sums they would like to spend here at home.

The Democrats on the other hand have worked themselves into the embarrassing position where they, the party of Wilson, Roosevelt, Truman, and Stevenson, are threatening to save on foreign aid in order to spend more at home.

SURELY, THERE is something inherently absurd in a situation where the Republicans are the globalists and the Democrats are the isolationists. Could such a topsy-turvy situation have developed if politicians in both parties had not forgotten the realities of our national needs while they play politics with the budget and with taxes?

What has happened to all these earnest and patriotic men? They have become entangled in a dogma which few of the members of Congress and none of the leaders in Washington have the courage to challenge.

What is the dogma? Is it that the budget should be balanced?

No. The budget should if possible be balanced.

The dogma which confuses the whole situation and the position of both parties is that the budget must be balanced without raising the income tax rates. The crux of the matter is the acceptance by both sets of political leaders of the dogma that the income tax rates of 1954 are sacrosanct.

ONCE THAT DOGMA is accepted, the budget cannot be balanced except by two equally unacceptable methods.

One is to balance it by taxes on consumption. This is something Congress won't now do.

The other method is to balance the budget at the expense of our national defense and of our foreign policy, and of our internal public needs and development. This is something that the country cannot afford to do.

Here, having accepted the dogma about the 1954 income tax rates, we have locked ourselves in a room from which there is no decent exit.

Duncan Says Mom Was Blackmailed

VENTURA (AP)—Frank Duncan today supported his mother's story that she was being blackmailed by two men who say she hired them to kill her daughter-in-law.

The young attorney's testimony completed the defense case for Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan, 54, who is charged with plotting and buying the murder of Frank's 30-year-old pregnant bride, Olga.

Frank finished his testimony as the trial went into its fourth week.

He testified that his mother first told him of the purported blackmail last Nov. 22. This was five days after the disappearance of Olga, whose body later was found in a road side grave.

Frank testified that his mother told him that two men were blackmailing her because they were angry about a $500 legal fee that he had paid to Duncan.

Frank said his mother told him she had given the men $350 and they were demanding $2,000 more.

Frank told the jury:

"I asked her why she hadn't told me this before. She said it was because she didn't want to endanger my life and because Olga had disappeared." He added:

"I was extremely angry and told my mother I was going down to the bar where she said these men could be found. Mother insisted I go to the police. I did go to the police. I told the police my mother was being blackmailed."

Frank said he later took his mother to the police station to discuss her blackmail story and to look at pictures in the police file.

On another occasion, he said, he viewed a lineup of men and finally identified Luis Moya, 20, as one of the blackmailers.

Moya and Augustine Baldonado, 26, have confessed that they strangled Olga after Mrs. Duncan promised to pay them $6,000.

AUTHORITY

Bridge employees, no provision for continuation of bridge insurance. He urged the supervisors to "look it over thoroughly" before taking a stand.

Murphy called the authority "not good for the county." He said he "can't see what Marin has to gain from an authority." He maintained he is "one of the wishful thinkers" who believe the Gate span will be toll free.

James Adam, bridge general manager, said "there is not a single specific thing in the bill that will react to benefit Marin County." The county would have only one vote on a 13-man board and the supervisors would have only token authority to make that appointment, he said. He called the Gate bridge and the Bay bridge "the gold mines" that the authority wanted to take over to develop port facilities.

He challenged Senator McCarthy to answer four questions. The senator greed. They were:

Adam: What single specific benefit is there for Marin County in the authority?

McCarthy: There is no specific benefit spelled out for any area in this bill; it does not set up a project priority list. Three advantages would be (a) regional planning; (b) assistance in acquiring an airport; (c) planning of a new bridge which the county will eventually need.

Adam: Do you favor a toll-free bridge?

McCarthy: I certainly don't. How could we possibly ever get another crossing if one was toll-free?

Adam: What damage would be done to the bill if the Golden Gate Bridge were excluded?

McCarthy: The damage of loss of future helpful coordination for the benefit of the people of Marin, the people I represent.

Adam: Don't you believe the people of Marin and the district should vote on being taken over?

McCarthy: Everyone's talking about "being taken over" or "taking away." We're not trying to take anything away. The bridge is still there and operating. We're trying to give the people something, a better operation.

The senator then said that if there is a real concern about Mendocino and Del Norte residents facing possible taxation without representation, he is willing to amend the bill so that in case taxation become possible, those two counties would get representation on the board.

The authority would have no taxing authority except that which the bridge district now has.

of what he called the "lies" put out by Baghdad.

The key to the struggle at this point was the army. Kassem had a strong armored force centered around Baghdad, while Shawaf had a force equipped with armor and light artillery ideally suited for fighting in the mountainous terrain around Mosul.

Shawaf has emeged as an anti-Communist sympathetic to the Arab nationalism of United Arab Republic President Gamal Abdel Nasser.

Moscow Radio expressed full Soviet backing for Kassem today. It parroted Baghdad Radio claims that the revolt had been crushed and declared that "all national progressive forces of Iraq are supporting the Kassem government."

The 35-year-old career soldier, although a Kurdish tribesman from the militant north of his country, did not appear to have injected the question of Kurdish nationalism into the fight.

The Soviet Union has sought to stir up Kurdish feelings for freedom in recent months throughout the Mideast area. But Shawaf appears to have spurned any involvement with Russia and instead has assailed Kassem as a "red leader" accepting aid from the Communists.

San Rafael Boy's Condition Critical

Lonnie Darrell Gillmore, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ray Gillmore of 35 Clorinda avenue, San Rafael, was reported in critical condition today at Marin General Hospital, where he was taken after a bicycle accident Friday.

He suffered head injuries and fractures of the right leg and jaw when a pickup truck hit his bicycle in San Rafael, throwing him to the pavement as the bike's front wheel was dragged under the truck and crushed.

The Ackerman boy finally ade a desperation plunge into he deep water in a futile effort to locate his friend and ull him to safety. He was unble to find him.

Panic stricken, the two boys an back to Raphael Village nd summoned help.

Capt. W. A. Curnutte of 1381 an Jose boulevard, attached o the 84th Fighter-Interceptor Squadron at Hamilton, and Dr. Robert P. Lewis of 1363 San Jose boulevard raced to the pond. Deputy Baker said the pair were in the water trying to locate the Cruz boy when members of Hamilton's 78th Air Police Squadron arrived.

After several dives by Air Police Sgt. John Lindsay, the body was found and brought ashore. Dr. Edward Gibson, also from Hamilton, applied artificial respiration for about 90 minutes without success.

Coroner Frank J. Keaton said an autopsy confirmed that drowning was the cause of death.

Deputy Baker said Sergeant Lindsay told him the Cruz boy had been under a doctor's care for a digestive disorder which had caused him to suffer convulsions.

The boy, a Pacheco School pupil, was born Aug. 3, 1944, in La Union, Philippine Islands. The family has lived in the United States for seven years and in Marin for five years.

Besides his parents, Theodore is survived by a sister, Virginia, 12, and six brothers, Delfin, 18; Cresencio, 16; Eliseo, 11; Joseph Jr., 5; Robert, 3, and Herbert, 1.

Requiem Mass will be offered at 10 a.m. Wednesday at Hamilton Air Force Base Chapel. Interment will be in San Francisco National Cemetery in the Presidio. The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Redwood Chapel, Novato.

Pleas Differ In Dope Case

Tiburon civil engineer John Leslie Smith, 43, and Sausalito poet-publicist Gerd Stern, 30, entered differing pleas today to charges of marijuana possession.

Smith pleaded guilty to the charge before Judge Richard M. Sims in Marin Superior Court. Judge Sims set March 30 at 10 a.m. for a report from the probation department. He allowed Smith to remain free on $3,500 bail. Smith was accompanied by his counsel, John L. Rockwell.

Stern pleaded not guilty to the charge of marijuana possession. A trial date was scheduled to be set March 23 at 10 a.m. Stern was represented by attorney Jay R. MacMahon.

The two were arrested Feb. 11 by Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos and his flying squad, who found about $2,500 worth of raw marijuana at the Muir Beach home of Smith. The civil engineer had offices in Tiburon.

Sheriff Mountanos said he got a tip that Stern had bought a bag of marijuana for $20 from Smith at a Tiburon restaurant.

Bloom, acquainted with Lipps through relatives in West Marin, thought the boys had been in an accident. He helped treat their many cuts and bruises. Gradually he became suspicious, however. He notified Christensen.

The deputy described the area about Sundberg's as looking like a "buffalow wallow" when he arrived. He said torn clothing was in evidence everywhere, with bloodstains on the ground and walls.

Deputy Sheriff Kenneth Irving had gone as far as Tocaloma in search of the missing youths when word was received from Bloom.

The four were taken to the county jail and booked at 2:30 a.m. on charges of disturbing the peace and illegal possession of beer. In Cooney's car the officers discovered two six-packs of beer.

All were released on $150 bail last night and ordered to appear in Marin Municipal Court at 1:30 p.m. today.

Giacomo Imperiale Rites Held In S.F.

Funeral services were held in San Francisco today for Giacomo (Jack) Imperiale, father of Mill Valley Police Officer John Imperiale. He was 86 and had lived in Cloverdale since 1906.

A native of Genoa, Italy, he had been a resident of San Francisco prior to the 1906 earthquake and fire. He was the last surviving charter member of the San Francisco Scavengers' Protective Assn., formed in 1896.

In addition to his son in Mill Valley, he is survived by his wife, Anna, two other sons and a daughter in Cloverdale, five grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Annie Mae Reed Dies After Illness

Mrs. Annie Mae Reed, 72, died this morning at the Marin County Hospital and Farm after a long illness.

A native of England, she had lived in San Anselmo for several years as a domestic worker. She entered the Marin County Hospital and Farm in June of 1953.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Violet Botts, whose last known address was in Nevada; and a grandson, William Treanton, who lives somewhere in Southern California.

Sausalito Resident James Sweet Dies

James G. Sweet of 66 Atwood avenue, Sausalito, died after a week's illness today in a San Francisco hospital at the age of 69.

He was a retired contract negotiator for San Francisco Ordinance District of the Army.

With his wife, Juliette, he settled in Sausalito after retiring four years ago. He lived in San Francisco about 36 years. He was originally from New York.

Giants Make Pitch For Conley

(Combined AP & UPI)

The word floating back and forth between the Arizona Cactus and the Florida Citrus is that the San Francisco Giants could win the National League pennant this year if . . .

The if is another right-handed pitcher. His name is Gene Conley and at the moment he is performing for the Boston Celtics of the National Basketball Assn., and carrying on a side feud with the Milwaukee Braves.

The Braves don't like the idea of their chattel playing basketball when he could be working out with the club, for which he didn't win a game last year.

He is trade bait, and the Giants have admitted they've reached the talking stage of a deal for the lanky right-hander. But so far the asking price has been too high.

A case in point happened yesterday when the Cleveland Indians licked the Giants, 3-2, in Phoenix, Ariz.

Paul Giel forced in the winning run in the eighth inning by walking pitcher John Briggs. Vic Power, who had opened the inning with a triple, scored and that was the ball game.

The game was quite a contrast to Friday's opening day slugfest when the Giants connected with five homers on the way to a 13-10 win.

Highlight for San Francisco yesterday was a four-inning shutout stint by the 20-year-old ex-bonus baby Mike McCormick. His successors on the hill ran into trouble, however, and the Giant cause was lost when Giel walked in Briggs with the bases loaded in the eighth.

Tomorrow, the San Franciscans meet Chicago and Manager Bill Rigney has named the front-line hurling trio of John Antonelli, Curt Barclay and Billy Muffett to toe the slab.

Rigney said Jack Sanford, who was scheduled to work yesterday, will probably start Wednesday's contest. He sat out yesterday's game because of a sore shoulder.

The pitchers had a short workout today and a few hitters asked and were granted some time in the batting cage, but most of the Giants took the day off.

In developments off the diamond, club Vice President Chub Fenney said he had asked pitcher Al Worthington to come to camp and work out while he and the club made a final effort to agree on a salary for the unsatisfied Worthington.

"We are getting closer together on this salary dispute," said Feeney, but he added he did not know whether Worthington would come into camp soon.

Marin Tars Sweep Baseball Openers

Coach Ed Grimm's College of Marin Tars opened their Golden Valley Conference baseball season Saturday by sweeping a double-header from Shasta J.C. at the Kentfield diamond.

Getting excellent pitching from lefty Bobby DeRosa and a key hit by third-sacker Ed Schulze, the Tars eked out a 4-3 triumph in the nine-inning opener. Then, with Ken Soldavini turning in a brilliant relief pitching job, Marin romped to an 8-2 triumph in the seven-inning nightcap.

DeRosa limited Shasta to five hits while striking out six and walking three in the first game. Schulze was a hero on two occasions. A diving stop of a line drive in the sixth inning prevented two Shasta runs from scoring. Then he singled home the tying and winning runs in the eighth frame after Bill Ahern singled, Gene Klein walked and DeRosa sacrificed them into scoring position.

Schulze and Dave Ferris each collected two hits and Fred Pfeffer got a triple for the victors.

Righthander Soldavini, former San Rafael High School star, stepped into the limelight in the third inning of the nightcap after Shasta scored two runs off starter lefty Butch Warmington. With no outs, Soldavini came in to retire the side without further damage and then pitched no-hit, no-run ball for the remainder of the game, striking out eight.

In the meantime Marin was getting on Shasta pitching for five runs in the fourth frame and three more in the fifth to make it a run-away. Schulze got two hits and drove in three runs. Ahern, DeRosa and Bob Kelleher each got two hits also.

Sellout Seen For Regionals At Cow Palace

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A sell-out crowd of more than 16,000 fans will jam the Cow Palace Friday night when the N.C.A.A. Regionals get under way, California Athletic Director Greg Englehard said today.

Ticket sales zoomed after the Golden Bears backed into the Pacific Coast Conference championship Friday night — and then whacked Oregon State, 55-52, Saturday to prove they are worthy champions. Actually coach Pete Newell's club clinched the crown while idle on Friday as UCLA dumped Washington.

Here is the opening line-up for the playoffs:

St. Mary's, West Coast Athletic Conference champion, vs the winner of the Border Conference champion and Idaho State game.

While the California-Utah battle shapes up as a dilly, St. Mary's is going to get the aid of fatigue against the team it plays.

TOUGH SCHEDULE

Tonight, Arizona State University tangles with New Mexico State at Las Cruces, N.M. After a rest tomorrow, Idaho State goes south to play the winner either at Las Cruces or at Tempe, Ariz. That leaves Thursday for travelling for the ultimate victor—and the club then will take on the strong Gaels.

The all-star card looks so attractive to Bay Area fans that it is expected to be a sell-out both nights. Englehard said that if there are indications of a sell-out the second night, the finals would be televised locally.

The wind-up of the cage season also showed these final results: Washington State 70, 63; Southern California, 80, Washington 74; Santa Clora 70, U.S.F. 64.

GAME WARDEN GETS 102-POUND STURGEON WITH A FLY ROD!

Game Warden Al Giddings yesterday accomplished an angling feat that is the talk of the Marin County sports world. He caught a 102-pound sturgeon on a 5½-ounce fly rod!!

The amazing battle took place on San Pablo Bay near Corregidor Island and it required 2 hours and 55 minutes to subdue the 77-inch monster. The battle covered an area of approximately two miles.

It all came about when Giddings and fellow Warden Russ Ild, patrolling the bay in a patrol boat, took time out for lunch and a bit of fishing. In fives minutes Giddings had a five-pound striper. Ten minutes later the whopping sturgeon hit Giddings' 2/0 hook, baited with sardine, and the duel was on.

Witnessing the struggle were Mr. and Mrs. Red Scanlon of Mill Valley, who were anchored alongside the patrol boat for the lunch period. The Scanlons, by the way, had given Giddings the Fenwick rod as a Christmas present.

Two Upsets Mark Opening Of Indian Valley Tourney

Defending champion Bud Sparrow won his first test as expected, and Jerry Evans and Tom Hardcastle posted upsets yesterday to highlight the first round of match play in the second annual Indian Valley Golf Club Spring Handicap Tournament.

Sparrow played steady golf to turn back Orv Boyer, 2 up, but Evans and Hardcastle stole the spotlight by knocking over a couple of tournament vets. Evans, playing his first tourney, canned a long putt on the 18th hole to defeat Fred Volz, 1 up, while Hardcastle nipped veteran Byron Dickson, 2 and 1.

One of the tighest matches of the day saw Mack Kelso edge John Badurra on the 19th hole. Both are 13 handicappers and tournament veterans and Kelso got the edge with a birdie on the par 5 19th.

Following are first round results:

Bud Sparrow d. Orv Boyer, 2 up; Bill Silver d. Joe Heming, 1 up; Nort Dawson d. Lou Denton, 5 and 4; Jerry Evans d. Fred Volz, 1 up; Jack Lashua d. George Anderson, 2 up; Al Leach d. H. J. Ross, 6 and 5; Warren Smith d. Pete Peters, 2 and 1; Steve Meuse d. Carl Williams, 3 and 1;

Frank Cangelosi, 1 up; Tom Washington d. Frank Valim, 3 and 1; Mack Kelso d. John Badurra, 19th; Charles Coleman d. Fred Meyer, 2 up.

HANLEY'S REPORT

Andre Rogers Not Shy With Royalty

By JACK HANLEY

PHOENIX, Ariz. — Meeting the Duke and Duchess of Windsor is an experience that might ruffle the poise of impressionable social climbers who probably would find themselves tongue-tied in the presence of royalty.

But when Andre Rodgers was presented to the man who gave up the throne of England "For the woman I love," the young man was as poised and polished as a veteran diplomat.

If anyone ever again tells us that Rodgers is a shy young man with traces of boyish bashfulness that might interefere with his chances of becoming the Giants' regular shortstop, we will relate this story:

It was opening day of the 1959 Cactus League with 5,333 fans jamming every seat in Hi Corbett Field at Tucson for the exhibition game between the Giants and Cleveland Indians.

The Duke and Duchess escorted by Tallant Tubbs, millionaire San Francisco sportsman, entered the park and went to a third base box reserved for them by Horace Stoneham and Eddie Brannick, president and secretary of the Giants

Sports writers, interviewing the former king, were surprised to learn that his knowledge of baseball is more than superficial and that he knew Rodgers was a British subject.

"I'VE SEEN him before," said the Duke. I'd like to talk with him."

"He's busy now," said his wife, the former Wallis Simpson. "He's going to bat next."

This was in the third inning of the game during which the Giants scored three of their 13 winning runs. Rodgers laced a single through the infield and after being forced at second was met as he walked off the field by a reporter who told him the Duke would like to meet him.

Tubbs, an inveterate Giant fan who knows every member of the team by their first name, introduced Rodgers to the Duke and Duchess.

"WHERE WERE you born?" the Duke asked the ball player who replied "Nassau." And how old are you?" his Royal Highness continued. Rodgers answered "23."

"Then you were 13 when I was there," said the Duke.

"That's right," said Rodgers. "I remember you well. I saw you there many times."

Without the slightest semblance of nervousness, Rodgers asked the Duke: "Are you enjoying yourself?" and man who once wore a crown smiled "Yes, surely."

The Duchess wanted to know whether Rodgers now lived in San Francisco.

"No, I go back to Nassau every year," he informed her and she said "There's no place like the Bahamas."

With gentlemanly ease, Rodgers agreed: "There is no place like it—there's no place like home."

At this juncture, a veteran newspaperman who had been told Rodgers was shy and difficult to talk to, expressed his amazement, saying:

"ANDRE, you're supposed to be a bashful young man—and here you are carrying on a delightful conversation with their royal highnesses—and with perfect ease!"

Everyone, including Andre, the Duke, the Duchess, Tubbs and eavesdroppers from the adjoining boxes laughed. Rodgers, reminded by the Duchess' comment "That stops that inning," turned to look at his team going back on the field.

"You'll have to excuse me now," he said to the royalty. "They need me now."

As he took his place at shortstop, the Duke commented "He's a nice boy" and the Duchess added "And he's a good baseball player, too."

WARD UPSET BY SILVESTRI IN CITY GOLF

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Bob Silvestri had his second San Francisco city golf title today after an upset 1-up victory over two-time national amateur king Harvie Ward.

Some 12,000 fans watched yesterday's final match as Silvestri moved to a 3-up lead 3 holes to go, only to lose the 34th and 35th holes. But on number 36, both men parred, and Silvestri had his victory.

It was the sixth time Silvestri, a South San Francisco driving range proprietor, had competed in the tournament's finals. Ward, a San Francisco auto salesman, has now been in the finals three times and won the tournament once.

Broncs Edge Dons, Clinch Second Place

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Santa Clara closed out the West Coast Athletic Conference season in second place with a 70-64 victory over San Francisco's Dons and a near-riot in the losers' new Memorial Stadium.

The last two points were netted by the Broncos' Jim Russi, who had sustained a bop on the head by USF's Charlie Range. Russi, somewhat put out, was restrained by three teammates.

Police moved in when several irate fans started down from the stands, but the ruckus cooled quickly as Russi sank a personal foul shot and then a technical.

Santa Clara came back from a 35-23 deficit. Russi was high scorer for the game with 23. USF's Fred LaCour sank 22 and John Cunningham got 21.

St. Mary's finished first with an 11-1 WCAC mark, followed by Santa Clara with 9-3, Pepperdine 8-4, College of the Pacific 6-6, Loyola of Los Angeles 4-8, USF 3-9 and San Jose State 1-11.

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) —World record-holder Herb Elliott won the Invitation Mile at Olympic Park today in 4:04.1 as Californian Don Bowden finished fourth. Bowden was timed in 4:09.5.

Merv Lincoln was second in 4:05.5, eight yards behind Elliott. John Murry ran third in 4:06.9 and was eight yards farther back. They and Elliott are Australians.

Elliott, in command from the gun, was content in the first lap to remain in fifth position in a field of seven, but never took his eyes off Lincoln.

Chiropractor's Role in Health Explained

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

Do you know what a chiropractor does? Many folks make the mistake of thinking that a chiropractor gives massages to people with sore backs. That's far from the truth.

Actually, a doctor of Chiropractic works with a person's nerves. You see, the center for all nerves is in the brain. These nerves flow down through the spine to all parts of the body.

Often these soft nerves are pinched by the hard bones of the spine. Sickness then results . . . for no part of the body can work properly without nerve energy from the brain.

By correcting defects in the spine, chiropractors have been able to restore this nerve energy and help folks with almost every type of sickness you can name.

Chiropractors use X-ray and other scientific instruments to determine whether your spine is in line. They have been so successful in getting sick people well that more than 500 insurance companies now pay claims for Chiropractic care.

For additional information on Chiropractic care (Palmer Method) write Dr. Robert W. Pearce at 1628 Fifth avenue in San Rafael, or address a card or letter to Dr. R. W. Pearce in care of Independent-Journal Box 725, or call GL 3-6201. Advertisement

Ted Wants 18 Homers To Reach 500 Mark, Then May Call It Quits

CONNOLLY

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz.—This area's famed VIP (very important person) is Ted Williams, the splendid splinter who flogs home runs as an outfielder for the paltry pittance of $125,000 a season for the Boston Red Sox.

The sad and thoroughly unbelievable stories of Ted never seem to end. If he is irritable, they say he's a prima donna; if he's polite, they say he's currying favor. The guy can't win, either way.

But to one old squirt who remembers him when he busted in with San Diego back in 1936, and played with the Padres during 1937, Ted is anything but the weary and crestfallen idol he so often is painted.

Williams, at 41 years of age, and who has been with the Boston Club since 1939, looks like a fellow with the mileage of a 30-year oldster. Tall, slender and still a handsome youngster, Ted was the essence of politeness.

"I'm constantly under pressure from spring training to the end of the season," he told me. "I like it, in my own sort of way, because it keeps me on my toes. I realize the fans expect me to do things that were easy six or seven years ago. Now, sometimes, its difficult to do.

"BUT I'M 41 and I can't always produce for them like I would like to do. But I'm interested in delivering. This could be my last season, and I'd like to crack out 18 homeruns to hit the 500 mark."

The winner of six American League batting titles, who has belted 482 homeruns, has a lifetime average of .349, a fielding average of .974, and had grand slammed 17 home runs. Ted is justly proud.

To be sure, Ted has slowed up some. He never was a swifty on the paths. Now you might even hear some envious guys say he is a double play hitter. But once the Red Sox take to the road, it's Ted the cash customers want to see. And they've proven it over the last two decades.

John Malaney, the Sox public relations boss and old time baseball scribner, points out that Ted is good for 15 to 20 thousand extra fans in every game on the road.

"IF WE didn't have Williams, you could say without fear of contradiction that we'd have at least 10,000 fewer fans at every road game we play," Malaney declares.

"I don't say that to belittle our other great players, but to point out an actual fact. He's the biggest attraction in baseball today, and has been, since the time of Babe Ruth."

Even in this plush little desert town that five years ago had only 800 inhabitants, and today has 12,500, Ted is the magnet who fills the park with 3,000 watchers.

Two people stop traffic in Scottsdale, where they have no sidewalks or red or green traffic signals . . . one is the horse and the other is Ted Williams.

The nicest part of this sunny and sometimes windy area is the mansions of Horace Stoneham, P. K. Wrigley and Dizzy Dean.

We drove out to Dean's home today and learned the great one is on a golfing mission for Falstaff Beer.

BUT WE got to see his home. The 15 acres that surround it are covered with Arizona tree-sweetened grapefruit.

Wrigley's home is within seeing distance of the Scottsdale ball park, and is identical to the Wrigley home on Catalina Island. It rests on a high mountain, looking all over Paradise Valley and is a treat for sore eyes.

Stoneham's residence, not far off, likewise challenges the imagination.

Bucky Harris, the general manager of the Red Sox, who succeeded Joe Cronin when the latter took over as president of the American League, is well pleased with the ginger of his squad.

A LOT of northern Californians are searching for jobs on the Red Sox roster. One of these, of course, is Pumpsie Green, the boy from Oakland who is challenging for a shortstop berth. Up from Minneapolis, Green is an all-around infielder, but prefers shortstop. He has a rough job cut out for him against such talent as Frank Malzone at third, Pete Runnels at second and another up and coming all-round performer named Ted Lepcio.

Other neighborhood citizens here included outfielders Jack Jensen and Marty Keough of Oakland; Bill Renna from Hanford; Pete Daley from Grass Valley; Don Giles of Modesto, and a pitcher named Ted Wills from Fresno.

Haywood Sullivan, former Seal, and Eddie Sadowski are a couple of sturdy catchers who are trying to horn in on Sammy White who seems to have the first string catching job nailed down, if his hitting improves.

White clouted the pill at the modest pace of .259 last year, which is not at all attractive to Manager Mike Higgins.

AND BY THE WAY, Higgins, whom I knew as Pinkey, former third sacker with Portland, has one of our closest friends as his first assistant—Del Baker, former Seal, Oak and Portland backstop of many years back.

To try and evaluate the Red Sox pitching would be suicide. As Skipper Higgins says, "I'm open minded on anybody who can pitch winning ball."

Tom Brewer and Ike Delock won 12 and 14 games, respectively, last year. Others who have done their share are Franklin Sullivan with 13 and 9; Murray Wall with 8 and 9; Dave Sisler with 8 and 9; and Leo Kiely, a southpaw who won 5 and 2. There are others, but to me they are just names at the present.

Title Bout Site Announcement Slated Tomorrow

NEW YORK (UPI)—Promoter Bill Rosensohn will announce tomorrow the city where the Floyd Patterson-Ingemar Johansson world heavyweight title fight is to be staged.

Rosensohn doubted, however, that he would disclose the date tomorrow; for he must first visit the city selected and decide there upon a date that would not be in conflict with other scheduled attractions in that city.

"Because Baltimore and Minneapolis may be raising their bids for the fight," the promoter said, "I won't be able to decide on the site until tonight or tomorrow morning."

Pro Netters In Boston

BOSTON (AP) — The world's professional tennis tour, led by champion Pancho Gonzales and Aussie ace Lew Hoad, moves into the Boston Garden tonight for a two-day stand.

Gonzales and Hoad will meet in singles each night for a purse of $1,200 put up by promoter Jack Kramer. Gonzales currently leads on the tour, 9-3.

OUCH! MY ACHING FINGERS

Los Angeles All-Star goalie Jerry Calder not only lets a goal slip by, but gets his fingers stepped on as well during soccer game in L.A. yesterday with team from Halsingborg, Sweden. Doing the damage to Calder's pinkies is Sweden's Sylve Bengtsson. The goal was good and the Swedes went on to a 6-0 victory. (AP Wirephoto)

Silver Spoon 'Certainty' For Ky. Derby

ARCADIA (AP) — They will have to enter another filly in the Santa Anita Derby record book today. And next May they may have to do the same for the Kentucky Derby.

The reason: Fleet, fighting Silver Spoon.

Whipping nine colts in the process, the daughter of the great Citation became the second filly to win this race. The King Ranch's Ciencia did it in 1939.

Today it appeared that Silver Spoon is almost a certainty to head for Churchill Downs and the Kentucky Derby.

Only once has a filly won that race—Regret in 1915.

NO FLUKE

There was nothing flukey about Silver Spoon's victory, her sixth without a defeat in as many races here. The margin was 2½ lengths over a strong, developing colt, Royal Orbit.

In her first run against colts, Silver Spoon whipped such as Finnegan and Ole Fols, who had beaten Tomy Lee, runner-up last year to First Landing for 2-year-old honors.

"We'll wait a week or so," said Whitney, "and if Silver Spoon came out of the derby without mishap, we'll send her into the Kentucky Derby.

Her time for the mile and one-eight here was a fast 1.49, just shy of the fastest Santa Anita Derby time, the 1.48 4-5 made by Your Host in 1950.

Can she travel the Kentucky Derby mile and one-quarter?

"I believe she can," said Whitney.

Jones Dinner Tickets Are Still Available

Ticket sales for the "Vic Jones Testimonial Dinner" Wednesday night of this week indicate more than 300 men will be on hand to honor the retired San Rafael High School coach and teacher, the sponsoring San Rafael Athletic Assn. reported today.

A few tickets remain on sale at the Taveggia-Brusati Sports Shop, 1340 Fourth street, San Rafael, the SRAA said. They should be purchased before Wednesday.

The testimonial dinner will be held at Trader Horn's, formerly Hamie's Chuck Wagon, in San Rafael starting at 6:30 o'clock. Some out-of-state former students of Jones have said they will attend, including Harry "Jake" Obitz, head golf professional at Shawnee-On-Delaware, Pa.

Jones, who retired in 1957, spent 38 years as a coach and teacher, the last 33 at San Rafael High where he served as an athletic director and coach, industrial arts instructor and attendance officer.

Among his most cherished coaching records, he says, is the fact that none of his football teams ever lost a game to arch-rival Tamalpais High.

Miles Wins Grand Prix At Pomona; Four Persons Hurt

POMONA (UPI)—Ken Miles of Hollywood ruled today as king of the 150-mile Grand Prix International Sports Car Race. It was marred by a track accident that injured four persons and mechanical troubles that forced more than a third of the cars to drop out.

Miles captured the lead from Bill Krause, of Sacramento, on the next to the last lap when Krause's 4.5 Maserati blew a tire. Krause managed to limp home in fourth place.

Piloting a Porsche Spyder, Miles toured Los Angeles County Fair Ground course in 1:44:22 for an average speed of 85.4 miles an hour. He pocketed $4,500 for his efforts.

The race was delayed for 45 minutes when Bruce Kessler's Sadler MK-II apparently hit an oil slick, crashed into an announcers' scaffold and smashed into four parked autos. Four persons were injured, none critically.

Kessler was thrown 30 feet into the air from the impact. Race Chairman Joseph J. Weissman, an attorney and president of the co-sponsoring California Sports Car Club, was on the platform and suffered minor injuries.

Kansans Take 4th In ABC Doubles

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Newton Brown and Ralph Kampschroeder of Ottawa, Kan., rescued the 23rd day of the American Bowling Congress Tournaments from comparative calm when they collaborated for a 1309 series and fourth place in doubles Sunday.

The pair rolled games of 414, 459 and 436, falling seven pins shy of the first place score for brothers Bob and Glenn Gersch of Chicago.

Kampschroeder, 47, a bowling house proprietor, paced the duo with a 716 set, his highest in 10 years. Brown, a 33-year-old farmer competing in his second ABC, rolled 593.

Robertson Wins Scoring Crown

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati has wrapped up the major college individual scoring title for the second straight year.

Robertson dropped Saturday when he scored only 24 points while Cincinnati was losing to Bradley. But his 33.6 average gave him a big lead over his next four rivals, who have completed their seasons.

Celts, Russell Rewrite NBA Record Books

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The Boston Celtics, runaway leaders of the Eastern Division, are leaving their mark in the National Basketball Assn.—and leaving it all through the league's record book.

The Celts accounted for no less than three records last night when they whipped the Cincinnati Royals, 141-131, at Boston. They set team records of 52 wins in a season (with one more game to go) and 67 games over the 100-point mark, and Celt center Bill Russell set a league season record of 1,588 rebounds.

In fact, if Cincinnati's Jack Twyman hadn't set a Boston Garden record with 19 baskets (part of a 45-point haul for the Royals star), the game could have been one of the season's most lop-sided.

NEW RECORDS

Boston's 52 wins break a league mark of 51 shared by the 1949-50 editions of Minneapolis, Syracuse, and the Rochester Royals. The 67 games at 100-plus-points breaks the mark of 66 set by New York last year. And Russell, by nabbing 25 rebounds in this game, eclipsed his own season record of 1,564.

The Royals had a 76-72 lead during the third period, but then fell behind to stay as Bill Sharman scored 19 points in that period for Boston en route to a game total of 29.

MOORE FIGHTS WRESTLER ON TEXAS CARD

ODESSA, Tex. (AP)—A wrestler who holds master and doctor degrees in psychology tonight will attempt to show Archie Moore, king of the light heavyweights, that a wrestler can whip a boxer.

Sterling "Dizzy" Davis of Houston, who both boxes and wrestles, will meet Moore in a local boxing card.

Besides a knowledge of psychology, Davis will depend on his righthand punches, which he says are the quickest and hardest in the world.

The 40-year-old Davis is expected to weigh in at 202 pounds. Moore, who is somewhere in his 40's, is expected to tip the scales at 192.

'Tennis Tips' Talk Wednesday At Recreation Center

Arvid Segerquist, professional tennis instructor from the California Tennis Club in San Francisco, will give a talk on "Tennis Tips" at the Southern Marin Recreation Center's Men's Night Wednesday at 6 o'clock, according to Recreation Director Howard Adams.

Center men members may swim before the 7:30 p.m. dinner, Adams said. Cards and chess will be offered after the speaker.

Littler Leads By 1 In New Orleans Open

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—Gene Littler of Singing Hills, Calif., entered the final round of the $20,000 New Orleans Open Golf Tournament today still leading the field of 60 top pros, but dangerously threatened by Baltimore's ace putter, Bill Collins.

Littler hung onto his lead yesterday with a 72-stroke par performance and entered the final day with a 54-hole mark of 76-64-72—209, one stroke ahead of Collins. The Californian jumped into the lead Saturday with a record-smashing eight-under-par 64.

Moe Norman of Toronto held down third place with 70-72-70—212.

Five players were tied in fourth place. Among them was PGA Champion Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla., who shot a 70 yesterday for a 213 total. Tied with Finsterwald were Bob Gajda of Bloomfield, Mich.; Wes Ellis Jr. of Aldecress, N.J., winner of the Texas Open in San Antonio, two weeks ago; Huston Laclair of Birmingham, Ala.; and Billy Maxwell of Odessa, Tex.

Bob Rosburg of Palo Alto, Calif., whose 68 was low yesterday, was tied at ninth with Walter Burkemo of Franklin Hills, Mich., and Marty Furgol of Cogs Hill, Ill. The trio all tallied 214.

So. Methodist All-Star Cager Killed In Fire

RUSTON, La. (AP) — Bobby James, the only junior selected on the 1959 All-Southwest Conference basketball team, died in a fire at his family home yesterday.

Funeral services for the 20-year-old outstanding Southern Methodist University athlete were to be held today, with six teammates as pallbearers.

A preliminary investigation indicated the blaze started in a bathroom wall heater and the youth apparently suffocated, fire chief James Mabry said.

James, 6 feet 5 inches tall, had been considered for All-America honors.

GARDEN SECTION

Corte Madera Club Meeting To Feature Film On Roses

The Garden Section of the Corte Madera Women's Club will present a new film "How to Grow Beautiful Roses" tomorrow at 2 p.m. A representative of the company which manufactures garden spray will accompany the film with a talk.

The picture shows the full year of techniques in rose culture, including fall clean-up, fall planting, pruning, spraying for such rose pests as scale and rust, and other points in rose care. Close-ups include many of the new All-American varieties of recent years.

This educational film was produced and edited by the California Spray-Chemical Corporation with John Paul Edwards as consulting rosarian.

Accompanying will be a picture, "How to Grow Beautiful African Violets and Gloxinias." This picture, which runs for 20 minutes, took more than a year to produce. It is filled with scores of visual "how-to-do-it" aids in the handling of these two favorite house plants. Some African Violets shown, among 50 specimens, are varieties being seen for the first time on the screen.

The showing of the film will be followed by a question and answer period, and the Garden Section of the Women's Club has opened the meeting to anyone who is interested in roses or these Gesneria family of house plants.

The meeting, held at the Corte Madera Recreation Center, is the Garden Section's contribution to Women's Improvement Club programs this year. A tea hour follows the film.

The Fresh Flower Hat Luncheon, a popular garden-inspired event which attracts many Corte Madera Women's Club friends, has been announced for Wednesday, April 22.

Larkspur Group Hear Reports On Community Activities

Progress reports in welfare and community service activities were heard at the recent meeting of the Twin Cities Unit 313 of the American Legion Auxiliary in Larkspur. Plans for a salad luncheon on March 18 to be held at the Legion Hall in Larkspur were also completed.

Sponsorship of a local student from the Redwood High School to attend a week's session in practical government at the Davis Campus in June is now in the planning stage. Support of the Auxiliary's statewide Nursing Scholarship will also be given by the local Auxiliary.

Winners of the current Americanism Essay Contest being conducted in the Larkspur-Corte Madera School, Neil Cummins, Marin Catholic and Redwood High Schools will receive the Bronze Medals for first place standing. Winners will also compete in District and State finals for silver medals and awards.

Hospital activities as well as assistance in the current Poppy making program at the Veterans' Home in Yountville were reported by Mesdames Bryce Florence, Sydney Conroy, Maureen Lynch and Ruth Monaghan. The red crepe paper poppies will be worn in honor of the nation's dead on Poppy Day in May.

Active opposition to a bill to eliminate the House Un-American Activities Committee will also be given by the Auxiliary throughout the United States. The committee's record of effective work against subversive influence will be the basis of the Auxiliary's stand.

Radio Free Europe which beams truth into the Iron Curtain countries of Poland, Czechoslavakia, Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria also received the Unit's support with cash donation and local resident support during the public booth appeal made by Mesdames Richard Guetter, Florence and Monaghan, at the Larkspur Bank.

Mrs. Edwin Olmstead, in charge of junior activities within the Unit, announced that two redwood trees will be presented to the Redwood High School by junior members of the Auxiliary.

March 24 has been designated as initiation night as well as the official visit night of the district president Mrs. Duncan Walker of Healdsburg.

PLANNING THE Founders' Day luncheon and jinks in observance of the 46th anniversary of the founding of the Sausalito Woman's Club are, left to right, Mesdames Delman Smith, John Alexander, Richard F. Phillips and Emmet Rixford. The date will be March 19.

Sausalito Club Is To Observe Forty-Sixth Anniversary Mar. 19

Something entirely different, using new and novel ideas formulated for this production and never before seen at a Founders' Day Luncheon and Jinks has been conceived for the Sausalito Woman's Club's 46th anniversary of the founding of the club on March 19.

Because secrecy has always been the watchword for the production of the HiJinks, "no hint can be given, except that members attending the luncheon are in store for a novel treat," says Mrs. Richard F. Phillips, first vice president and general chairman of the day.

Since the inception of the club in 1913, Founders' Day has always been commemorated in March and this year special tribute to Miss Fannie Shoobert, only surviving member of the 10 original founders, will be made as well as honoring all the presidents, past and present.

Among the many traditions of the birthday celebration is the serving of the old members by the members who have been taken into the club since the last Founders' Day and the singing of a special song composed for the occasion many years ago and which traditionally opens the Founders' Day ceremonies. Mrs. Frank E. Rossman is directing the singers for this old custom and Mrs. Delman Smith is in charge of the serving.

This year a musical background by Mrs. Rossman will accompany the reading of the Club Collect by Mrs. James S. Wyatt. The pledge of allegiance to the flag will be led by Mrs. Loren L. Jay.

Special places are reserved for the honored guests and Mrs. John E. Koenig is arranging the seating with attractive place cards designed and made by Mrs. Charles H. Merrill Jr.

Unusual decorations for the tables and throughout the clubhouse are being designed and created by Mrs. Emmet Rixford and her committee: Mesdames Sydney F. Hyde, Frank T. Greene and Douglas Kerr.

Assisting the chairman of table arrangements, Mrs. Leonard Blakely, is Mrs. Robert Peterzon, Mrs. W. L. C. Brown and Mrs. Jackson Perry.

Greeting members at the door will be Mrs. Robert Anderson and Mrs. Brookner Brady and checking them in will be Mrs. L. S. M. Beckett.

Invitations to the affair have been sent out by Mrs. Harold Treacy.

Mistress of ceremonies for the day will be Mrs. Howard Seivers, president of the club from 1950-52.

For the Hi-Jinks, Mrs. Fred M. Tetzlaff and her committee have prepared a diverting performance. Author and director of the production is Mrs. Tetzlaff. Directing the music is Dr. Harold Rosenblum whose wife is a member of the club.

The sets and costumes have been designed by Mrs. Alexander Imlay who is also seeing to the construction of the sets. Mrs. Miriam Brecka is in charge of the costumes.

Dance composer and director is Mrs. Fredrik S. Waiss.

Production manager is Mrs. John Brebner, and co-ordinating this new and unusual idea in entertainment is Mrs. Henry Swart.

Mrs. Douglas Kerr is acting as advisor.

New members taken into the club this past year are Mesdames Frank Bosl, Ernest Bowman, Martin Bronstein, Matthew Dooley, George Eastman, Glen Hall, William Kuder, Robert LaFontaine, Bryon Rowlands, Nathan Smith, John Sweeny, Wint F. Saint, William H. Johnston, Henry Swart, Raymond Gergus, Max Pollack, H. C. McVean Jr., Joseph Cox and Jacques Johnet and Miss C. B. Shillig.

Neil Cummins Will Hear Talk Driver Training

When a youth of 16 receives his driver's license, does it necessarily mean that he has reached an age of responsibility also?

That, among others, is one of the answers which will be provided by Dr. John Eales, consultant in secondary education with the California State Department of Education in a talk before the Neil Cummins School P-TA and interested parents and educators on Wednesday in the school's all-purpose room. The time will be 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Eales is nationally known as an authority on the subject of driver training in secondary schools. He has written many articles on this program in magazines of national scope.

Since the tax issue threatened to take this educational program from Tam High School District, parents will have many questions to ask of Dr. Eales as to the costs per pupil, the requirements for qualified teachers and whether sufficient funds will be forthcoming from the state to carry on a full program. Last year, for instance, 250 students wanted to take the training, but only 50 were able to be accommodated. Also of interest, is the bill before the Legislature at the present time in which the minimum age may be raised to 18 years.

Mrs. Addison J. Mooney, as Juvenile Protection chairman for Neil Cummins P-TA, will present Dr. Eales. Refreshments will be served at 7:30 by the third grade mothers and the colors will be marched in by Girl Scout Troop No. 114, honoring Scout Safety Month.

March is election month in P-TA and the following names have been offered as the nominated slate of officers for the following year: president, Mrs. C. W. Valk; first vice president, Mrs. Mort J. Simon; second vice president, Mr. Carl Tivel; treasure, Mrs. Anthony Vranjos; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Dean Short; recording secretary, Mrs. L. Jay Simon; auditor, Mrs. Earl Nilsen, and historian, Mrs. John Fraser.

Influence Of Color

ST. PAUL, Minn. (UPI)—Coloring in a room has more to it than meets the eye.

Some colors may induce fatigue, like a bright turquoise against bright red, while other color combinations may cut down working efficiency or cause adverse moods, warned home economist Gertrude Esteros. She said color selections for homes are too often based on fashion or personal whim, with no consideration for practical factors.

DEADLINE: If mailed, envelope must be postmarked by midnight Monday, March 9, 1959, to make entry eligible for cash prize. If delivered to I-J office, entry must be in our hands by 5:30 p. m. Monday, March 9, 1959. This entire page must be received, with all questions answered.

MAIL OR BRING ENTIRE SHEET TO INDEPENDENT-JOURNAL — San Rafael

I-J EDITORS want to know what features readers like best. We want YOUR opinion, and as an inducement to you to spend a little time answering our questions, we offer you a free chance on a $100 cash prize. Another benefit: Your opinion can help us improve the paper, which we are constantly striving to do.

CONTEST RULES

1. Study the questions below, and the comic strips and cartoons illustrated. Indicate what you read or do not read by checking the proper square for each feature. Answers have no bearing whatever on the prize award, but every feature must be checked in order to qualify your entry in the prize contest.

2. When you have checked your reading habit for each feature, then fill in your estimate of what the total paid circulation of the daily Independent-Journal will be on Wednesday, March 11, 1959. This figure varies from day to day—nobody knows what it will be, even at the I-J. Nearly 100% of the 25,000-plus I-J circulation is home delivered, but sales are also made daily at newsstands, stores, and from street stands.

3. The estimate nearest to the correct figure will be the winner. If more than one person sends in the winning number, the $100 prize will be divided equally. Only one award given per family.

4. Members of the I-J staff, employees of this newspaper, and their families are not eligible for the cash prize.

5. Mail or bring this COMPLETE PAGE to the Independent-Journal. If mailed, entry must be postmarked not later than Midnight, Monday, March 9, 1959. It may be delivered to the I-J not later than 5:30 p.m. on Monday, March 9, 1959.

6. Announcement of the winner will be made in the Independent-Journal of Saturday, March 14, 1959, or as soon thereafter as possible.

CLUES TO HELP YOU WIN

The I-J's average daily net paid circulation for 3 months ending March 31, 1955, was 18,945. For 1956 this figure was 20,916 . . . in 1957, 22,926; and for 1958 it was 24,680. These were averages, of course—the count varied from day to day.

You can take it from there. Good luck!

THE PARENTS' CORNER

By RICHMOND BARBOUR, Ph. D.
Guidance Counsellor

At Age 6 They Begin Learning, Some To Loaf, Others To Fail

We start our youngsters in the first grade when they're 6. Most of 'em move along year by year till they graduate. They're grouped chiefly by age throughout. Is that a good way to group pupils? Let's take a look.

Our present arrangement was invented about 100 years ago. It was a big improvement then. Now we see flaws. The big weakness is that it assumes kids of the same age are alike. It assumes they'll learn the same things, at the same time, with about the same results. But we know now that's impossible. They're too different.

Here's an example. I checked a regular ninth grade class in a good school. The kids were within 12 months of each other in age. But some were reading at the college level, others at the fourth grade level. The top I.Q. was 150 and the low, 80. The teacher was trying to adjust her work to their different abilities, but she couldn't. Differences were too great. The result? The bright children were learning to loaf and the dull ones were learning failure was inevitable. It's the same in most classes.

A few schools are trying other grouping plans. One idea is to put all 6 year olds into a "primary block." They are studied. Then they're grouped and taught at their proper speed. Some of them get through the work usually assigned to the first three grades in two years. Some in four. There are no promotions. No failures either.

We need to try out many plans. Here's a suggestion for you. Many school folks are dissatisfied with our present grouping. They want to work out something better. But they're afraid to try. They think we parents would stop them. Will you pass the word to your principal that you too see what's wrong with our arrangement? Maybe you can help him invent the new plan all schools need.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Auto Pioneer Dies

DEERFIELD, Mass. (UPI) — Funeral services will be held tomorrow for Hinsdale Smith, credited with inventing the convertible automobile, the modern steering wheel and the roll-down car window.

Smith operated one of the world's first auto body factories from 1900 to 1914 at Springfield where he built and named where he built and named the first convertible car. He fashioned the steering wheel to replace the steering bar formerly used on Henry Ford's first vehicles and on Stanley Steamers and other early autos.

He is also credited with moving the automobile engine from the rear of the car to the front.

His patent rights were scattered throughout automotive industry. Even today Smith's inventions form a basis for much of the design and construction of trucks and cars.

'Bigness' Vs. Liberty Studied At ACLU Meet

By BETSY M. WOODMAN

Threats to individual freedom by bigness in labor, government, and particularly business seemed to concern American Civil Liberties Union conferees most seriously at their Saturday workshop sessions at Marin Country Day School in Corte Madera.

Without labeling bigness per se as evil, the participants felt the few in control of business or labor usually were too distant for individuals to obtain satisfactory recourse. Individuals also resent the manipulation of their lives by great business combinations which can rob a person of his right to choose.

BIGGEST TURNOUT

The workshop on "Bigness in Business, Government and Labor" drew the biggest turnout of four sessions Saturday. Source material for it was presented by Paul Williams of Berkeley, researcher and economist for the California State Chamber of Commerce. Gordon W. Strawbridge of Mill Valley was moderator.

The three other workshops of the conference found that in their areas emphasis was the present need to encourage the use of rights rather than to battle their suppression.

CLASSROOM FREEDOM

Dr. Samuel N. LeCount, director of adult education at College of Marin, led the talks on "Freedom in the Classroom." He reported his group's consensus that teachers should be free to discuss any topic commensurate with class maturity; that teachers should be fundamentally resource persons and stimulators, not authoritarians; that they should encourage free inquiry but not use their positions of authority to influence opinion. It was noted that one "can't teach freedoms by talking about freedoms—they must be practiced."

Discussion on "Church and State" was led by Rev. E. C. Vanderlaan and moderated by Frank Moncreif. A general conclusion was that there should be no religious indoctrination in public schools. Courses about comparative religion in high school, with competent teachers, would be proper. It was felt that religious training belongs more to homes and churches, that schools are not committed to the life training of children who learn in other places besides school.

NEWS CENSORSHIP

The field of censorship was introduced by Steven Warshaw of the San Francisco News with James Moore as the moderator. Mrs. Salem Rice, reporter, indicated this group recognized the need for censorship to a degree in areas of government during negotiation, but thought by and large there was too much and the subject needed frequent challenging to keep it open for reconsideration.

There was no agreement within the group concerning a definition of obscene literature or ways to keep it from those who might be hurt by it.

In the final general session, Dr. Alfred Azevedo, who presided, made it clear that the liberties were sought for all persons, not a specialized group, that liberalism means method rather than content, and that the social and moral responsibility of individuals is of vital importance.

Theodore Roosevelt became the first president of the United States to ride in an automobile, in 1902.

S.F. Blue Baby Arrives In Chicago For Surgery

CHICAGO (AP) — A little boy with an ailing heart was in a Chicago hospital today awaiting surgery and a possible chance for a normal life.

His parents are optimistic the operation will be a success.

So is the doctor who will perform the operation to correct a "blue baby" condition suffered by the 2½-year-old boy, David Stewart, since he was six weeks old.

Among the prayers offered for David's recovery will be those by the thousands of residents of the San Francisco Bay area whose donations made the trip to Chicago and the operation possible. Their contributions of nearly $10,000 financed the trip and the operation, scheduled for Thursday.

David's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stewart of Sharp Park, accompanied their son on a flight from San Francisco yesterday. The plane was equipped with a special mask and two bottles of oxygen but the ailing boy did not need them.

"We are extremely grateful for the generosity of the people in California and for the kindness of those we have met in Chicago," said Stewart, 25, an insurance salesman.

"Prayers will bring the boy through," David's parents said. Mrs. Stewart added: "I know the operation will be a success."

Dr. Thomas G. Baffes, who developed the first surgical correction of one of the types of "blue baby" conditions known as transposition of the great vessels of the heart, will perform the operation. A successful operation would allow David to live a more normal life. However, he will require more surgery later.

Dr. Baffes said the odds are 6 to 1 in David's favor.

"But," he added firmly, "David will recover."

SAN ANSELMAN WINNER OF RADIO CONTEST

An enterprising San Anselmo man, Ken Schaefer, of 21 Kenrick drive, thrust his arm into the Sausalito police car that was conveying KCBS radio personality Owen Spann to Sausalito City Plaza on Saturday morning, his hand was grasped by Spann, and Schaefer thus became the winner of 52 weeks of free entertainment in Bay Area amusement spots for himself and his wife.

A crowd of more than 100 people had gathered at the plaza after Spann gave clues in couplet form identifying the spot where he would appear. Similar contests will be held the next two Saturdays at other Bay Area locations.

New Honor For Star 4-H Member

Another honor has come to Jim McNern, outstanding Marin County 4-H Club member. McNern was one of 12 California 4-H Club members selected from a group of 79 applicants as candidates for the Diamond Star Award. Four Diamond Stars will be chosen from the 12 candidates and will represent the state at the National 4-H Club Conference in Washington, D.C. this summer.

Young McNern, who will be 20 next month, is a national winner of the Santa Fe college scholarship for boys leadership and has twice attended the National Congress, once as state and once as sectional winner. He is the son of Mrs. Margaret McNern of Novato and is in his sophomore year at College of Marin. He plans to go on to the University of California at Davis, majoring in agricultural education.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Gifts To Charity May Be Deducted

By PETER J. WIKEL, CPA

Your charitable contributions are deductible up to 30 per cent of your adjusted gross income provided that at least 10 per cent is to churches, educational institutions or tax exempt hospitals. Otherwise your contributions are deductible up to 20 per cent of your adjusted gross income.

Peter J. Wikel

Contributions, to be deductible for 1958, must have been paid in 1958. It is not enough to have pledged to contribute at a later date. Payment must have been made in 1958.

Payments in money or property are equally deductible. If a contribution was made in property, the amount of the deduction is the fair market value of the property at the time the contribution was made.

This has interesting possibilities.

Assume that you purchased a piece of real estate for $5,000 in 1940 and that you made a contribution of this piece of real estate in 1958 and its fair market value at the time of the contribution was $10,000. You receive credit for the contribution of $10,000 but you do not pay tax on your gain of $5,000.

However, if you sold the real estate for $10,000 and contributed the $10,000 you would be taxed on your long term capital gain of $5,000. It does not matter if the recipient of the contribution immediately sells the property. All forms of property may be contributed—stocks and bonds, automobiles, furniture, fixtures, equipment, clothing, etc.

To be deductible, your contributions must be to a religious, charitable, educational, scientific or literary organization; or an organization for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, except when such organization is operated for personal profit or to conduct propaganda or attempt to influence legislation.

Also deductible are gifts to fraternal organizations if they are to be used for charitable or religious purposes, and gifts to veterans organizations. Gifts to governmental agencies for public purposes, etc.

Do not deduct political campaign contributions or contributions to any organizations that devote a good part of their activities to propogande, lobbying or trying to influence legislation, even for a worthwhile purpose.

SEVENTH GRADERS HEAT HOUSE FROM SUN

Janet Suthey and Carol Krone, members of Mrs. Margaret Gustafson's seventh grade science class at Edna Maguire School in Mill Valley, show model of solar house which they will exhibit in Marin Science Fair at Tamalpais High School on March 17-18. The house is heated by collecting the rays of the sun (simulated by light bulb in model) through series of pipes which pass through Glauber's salt in closet unit. The salt retains the heat from the sun's rays which is then released through radiators to heat house. It works, too.

Bullard Jr. To Head United Crusade Drive

Edward W. Bullard Jr. of Ross, vice president in charge of sales of E. D. Bullard Co., has accepted appointment as Marin's 1959 campaign chairman for the United Crusade, it was announced today by Mrs. Thomas J. Mellon, president of Marin United Fund.

Bullard will supervise and direct the 3,000 volunteers needed to complete solicitation in the county. Organization is now under way and recruitment will continue so that adequate training may be given to the recruits before the campaign opens in October, Mrs. Mellon said.

Bullard is finance chairman of Marin County Council of Girl Scouts, and so acquainted with the financial problems of United Crusade agencies.

He and his family live on Shady Lane, Ross, where he is a member of St. John's Episcopal Church and the Lagunitas Club. His wife, Marion, while busy with the four children, Jed, 10, Elizabeth, 7, Esther, 6, and Brian, 2, is also on the Sunday School staff of the church.

Nationally, Bullard is membership chairman of the American Society of Safety Engineers and a member of the board of the Industrial Safety Equipment Assn.

Volunteers are invited to write to Crusade office, 801 B street, San Rafael, and offer to take the responsibility for a given residential district, Mrs. Mellon said.

Friends Try Vainly To Save Drowning Raphael Village Boy

Theodore (Teddy) Cruz, 14-year-old son of a Hamilton Air Force Base master sergeant, drowned Saturday in a small pond on private property near Raphael Village, despite frantic rescue efforts by two young companions.

The youth sank and reappeared several times before vanishing from sight. The tragedy occurred at about 4:15 p.m.

Teddy was one of seven children of M/Sgt. and Mrs. Joseph J. Cruz of 640 San Jose boulevard, Raphael Village. His father is a member of the 78th Air Base Group Band Squadron.

Deputy Sheriffs M. J. Baker and Gerald Fries said the Cruz boy swam to the middle of the approximately 400-square-foot pond while his neighborhood friends, Michael Hevron, 14, of 622 San Jose boulevard and Robert Ackerman, 13, of 677 Owens drive, waded in shallow water.

The pond, about 10 feet deep in the middle, is at the end of a fire trail one-half mile south of Raphael Village on property of Trousdale Construction Co., according to the officers. They said it is fenced on three sides.

Deputy Baker said the dead boy's companions gave this account of the tragedy:

Teddy swam out to deep water and shouted at them to join him. Suddenly he began gasping for breath and yelling for help, then disappeared momentarily. When he reappeared, they reached out and handed him a stick.

In grabbing the stick, he

FAIR WEATHER EXPECTED TO CONTINUE

There is a possibility of one or two days of light rain for northern California this week, but the Bay Area will have fair weather through tomorrow, the weatherman predicted today.

The weather bureau foresees considerable cloudiness and possible sprinkles on the extreme northern coast late today or tonight. However, tomorrow should be fair over almost all of the state.

Marin continued to bask in the cooler but fair skies that brought this year's biggest crowds to Samuel Taylor Park during the weekend. Ranger Jock Schlotter of Taylor Park estimated 2,000 visitors passed through the park Saturday and Sunday.

Top mercury readings in Marin during the weekend ranged from about 73 to 80 degrees in various communities. This noon, the thermometer in San Rafael registered a cool 70.

Bombers Attack North Iraq Rebels

Insurgents Claim Advances

A government radio broadcast from Baghdad said Iraq Air Force planes bombed the rebel capital at Mosul. A rebel broadcast from Mosul claimed an insurgent victory over government ground forces and said that revolutionary troops were marching on Baghdad.

No details were available on either the bombing or the reported ground battle. Outsiders were totally dependent on rival radio broadcasts and sparse diplomatic dispatches.

But these made it appear that the uprising in Iraq's rich northwestern oilfield area led by Arab Nationalist sympathizer Col. Abdel Wahab Shawaf against the regime of Leftist Premier Abdel Karim Kassem was headed for a bloody showdown.

MIDDAY ATTACK

The Baghdad radio said loyalist fighter-bombers attacked Mosul at midday. But a broadcast from Shawaf's rebels declared that "the bombardment will only make us stand firmer with the revolution."

The rebels also announced over an insurgent "revolutionary radio" said to be in Mosul that their troops were marching on Baghdad.

A later rebel broadcast called Kassem, who led the coup last July that overthrew King Faisal, a "tyrant dictator." It said he had dispatched a "small force" to Mosul, and added that it "has been wiped completely out."

INTERVENTION WARNING

One of Shawaf's first acts after claiming complete control of Mosul, Iraq's third largest city, was to warn against the "grave complications" of any foreign intervention. A broadcast proclamation termed the rebellion "purely internal" and pledged the rebels to neutrality.

The rival radio broadcasts made it appear that Shawaf's attempt to unseat Kassem, accused of pro-communist sympathies, had survived the first 24 hours. The Baghdad government had claimed earlier that the revolt was put down and that Shawaf was killed by his own men. Later, a man whose voice was identified as that of Shawaf came on the rebel Mosul radio to broadcast a denial

$2 Million Suit Against Hopps Begins In S.F.

Trial of a $2,809,701 damage suit by Continental National Bank and Trust Co. of Utah against Stewart B. Hopps, Belvedere, financier, started today in San Francisco.

Judge Louis B. Goodman is hearing the case without a jury in U. S. District Court. The suit was filed Sept. 4, 1956.

The bank in Salt Lake City is receiver for the bankrupt Inland Empire Insurance Co. of Salt Lake City. It claims that Hopps once controlled Inland and that he conspired to divert funds of the company to his own use.

The bank contends Hopps thereby defrauded credits, policy holders and minority stockholders of Inland.

Hopps, through his attorney, J. W. Ehrlich of Corte Madera, declares he never was a stockholder, officer or director of Inland and therefore never could have controlled it.

Five Persons Saved From Sinking Boat

A 34-foot converted cabin cruiser ran aground off Angel Island about 2 p.m. Saturday and sank in Racoon Strait soon after its five occupants jumped to safety aboard the boat of a Sausalito couple.

The Sea Wench, former Navy landing craft owned by Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Singer of San Francisco, went down in shallow water when waves drove it into rocks near Hospital Cove.

CHAIN SNAPS

Singer, a pharmacist, said the sinking capped a series of misfortunes which began when the anchor chain snapped while the boating party was having lunch aboard the vessel.

"Then the battery wouldn't turn over the engine, and the waves drove us onto the rocks," Singer said.

Other small craft in the area headed immediately for the stricken Sea Wench. One was skippered by L. D. Copland of San Francisco, who tied a line to the listing boat and tried to pull it free. But the Sea Wench began settling stern first and the effort was abandoned.

WET BUT UNHURT

The Singers and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bailey of El Cerrito and Mrs. Audrey Bohm of San Francisco, were rescued by a boat owned by Mr. and Mrs. Frederic A. Hough of 86 Cloudview avenue, Sausalito. Wet but unhurt, the five were taken to Clipper Yacht Harbor in Sausalito aboard the Houghs' canvas-cabined outboard.

"There were plenty of boats around," Singer said. "We weren't frightened."

The Sea Wench, valued by Singer at $5,000, was not insured. He said he purchased a ship-to-shore radio Saturday, but hadn't had time to install it.

Soldavini, Morgan File For Election

San Rafael City Clerk W. L. (Lynn) Morgan and Tax Collector-Treasurer Angelina Soldavini filed their nomination papers today to officially throw their hats in the ring for re-election in April.

With filing deadline only four days away, four announced candidates were still in the process of getting enough nomination petitions to complete their filing. These include Charles W. Aby and Machael McLean for city councilman; Thomas P. Boyd, for city attorney, and Bill Thompson, radio announcer, who has indicated he is interested in running for the board of education.

No "dark horses" have appeared thus far in the various races, but last-minute candidates are possible because filing deadline is 5 p.m. Friday.

The only contests that have shaped up so far are as follows:

City council — Incumbents Aby and Fred Jensen, and newcomer Michael McLean. Two to be elected.

Police chief—Chief Frank Kelly and Lt. Charles Chiesa.

Three Shots Fired At Prowler Fleeing Downtown Novato

A Marin County sheriff's deputy fired three shots Saturday night at a prowler in Novato's Grant avenue business district, but the man, described as a "very fast sprinter," made good his escape.

Deputy M. L. Baker said he and Deputy Gerald Fries were patrolling the downtown area east of Highway 101 about 10:30 p.m. when they saw a man dart across Nugent lane into the walkway of the Grant avenue Patio.

Barker got out of the patrol car to investigate and the man started running. The deputy chased him, shouting, "Halt!" and "Sheriff's office!" But the man kept on running.

A shot fired by Baker into the air failed to stop the sprinter. So did two more shots aimed at his legs as he dashed behind the Novato Community Club and vanished.

Supervisors Favor Bay Authority 4-0

Final tally was 4 to 0 after William D. Fusselman left the room after the endorsing motion was made but before the roll had been called. He explained he was not prepared to vote either for or against the authority today, even after hearing more than two and one-half hours of discussion this morning and an hour and a half last Friday.

Fusselman has maintained he believes in the idea of the authority in principle, but thinks the Golden Gate Bridge probably should be excluded.

He said he would not "pass" his vote because under Robert's Rules of Order a passed vote is considered in the affirmative. He left the room over the strong protest of Chairman Walter R. Castro.

The endorsement came after representatives of the Golden Bate Bridge and Highway District had presented lengthy arguments against inclusion of the bridge. Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy, author of the bill, SB576, also spoke.

Marin bridge directors Matt Graham and Leland Murphy opened the discussion.

Graham held the authority, which would take over operation of bridges, airports and seaports in the Bay Area, would disfranchise residents of Mendocino and Del Norte Counties, which are in the bridge district, but not in the authority area.

He said the authority provides no vote by the taxpayers, makes no provision for Gate

'Some Troops Can Stay In Berlin'--Nikita

BERLIN (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev declared today he would be agreeable to stationing a protective garrison of neutral troops in West Berlin if the Allies would end their occupation of the city.

Khrushchev told an East Berlin rally that such a neutral garrison could guarantee the free city status of West Berlin —but must not interfere in its internal life.

Alternatively, the Soviet leader offered to set up a security garrison of American, British and French as well as Soviet troops.

Khrushchev specified that the number of troops stationed in West Berlin—whether the West elected to have a neutral or a Big Four garrison—would have to be held to a minimum.

He urged the allies to agree to end their occupation of West Berlin.

"Some people are afraid that the freedom and independence of West Berlin would be threatened," he said. 'But we are prepared to join with the Western powers to guarantee the freedom of the city."

Previously the Soviet Union had suggested that U.N. observers keep a watch on Berlin after it becomes a completely demilitarized city.

Senate Demos Order Defense Budget Probe

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Senate Democratic leaders today ordered a sweeping investigation of President Eisenhower's new defense budget and touched off major debate by challenging his military judgment.

The senatorial battle over the adequacy of U.S. defenses in the face of the mounting Berlin crisis was sparked by announcement that the nation's military chiefs have expressed "reservations" about funds allotted to fighting forces under the President's new defense budget.

Both Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, Army chief of staff and Gen. Randolph Mc C. Pate, Marine commandant, complained that their forces are being cut too much. Taylor declared Army personnel resources were "inadequate to meet in full the requirements of their assigned missions."

President Eisenhower has insisted that the nation's defenses are adequate.

Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson announced that his preparedness subcommittee will open hearings Wednesday to "get the truth with the bark off" on the defense budget.

The defense debate erupted on the Senate floor as the Armed Services Committee unanimously approved a four-year extension of the draft act to July 1, 1963. The committee rejected proposals for modification at this time because of what it termed a "time of crisis."

'COME ON, BOYS'

Youths Look For A Fight--Get One

It all started, said Deputy Sheriff William Christensen, when one of the youths, 18-year-old William P. Lipps of Berkeley, pounded on the door of an outdoor telephone booth in which Eule White, 48, was making a call.

White, who arrived from Oregon with some logging buddies recently in search of work at Olema, kept right on talking. And Lipps, who wanted to place a call himself, kept right on pounding.

"Get the hell out of there! I want to make a call!" White quoted the youth.

When he finally emerged from the booth, the logger was felled by a right hand blow to the head. He injured his right knee on the curb fronting Sir Francis Drake boulevard between Sundberg's Inn and Joe's Place.

Offering Lipps moral support from a car parked nearby were his three companions, Stanton G. Friedman, 19, and James M. Cooney, 18, both of Berkeley, and Robert A. Fansler, 18, of El Cerrito.

Smarting from the blow, White got to his feet and limped into Sundberg's without saying a word.

"Come on boys, I need your help," he told his logger friends, some 15 to 20 strong.

With fists swinging, the loggers poured out of the tavern. The four youths locked themselves in Cooney's car, but the maneuver failed to deter the gang from the inn. They smashed the car windows, forced open the doors and tore into the teen-agers.

When their work was finished, the band of loggers returned to their beer. The East Bay youths, their shirts torn and

3-Car Crash Causes Huge Tieup On 101

A three-car rear-end collision on Highway 101 just north of Terra Linda caused a traffic snarl last evening that extended for miles toward Novato.

Injured in the crash were Theresa Marques, 20, of South San Francisco, and Mrs. Mary Guehennec, 44, of San Mateo, passengers in a southbound car driven by Mrs. Marques' husband, Raymond, 22.

The other drivers were Harold M. Buck, 29, of 50A Alexander street, San Rafael, and A/2c James J. Sostack, 21, of the 79th Supply Squadron, Hamilton Air Force Base.

Mrs. Marques was bruised on the forehead and right leg. Mrs. Guehennec suffered a strain neck. Both were treated at San Rafael General Hospital.

In an earlier North Marin accident yesterday, Mrs. Laura Biederman, 48, of 1552 South Novato boulevard, Novato, was slightly injured in a two-car rear-end crash on that street, near Center road. She was riding in a northbound auto driven by Gordon H. Biederman, 25, of the same address, when it hit the rear of one driven by George C. Sweet, 54, of Vallejo.

The Highway Patrol said Sweet had stopped and apparently was deciding whether to make a left turn when the accident happened at 11:40 a.m. Mrs. Biederman did not require hospital treatment.

2 AWOL Prisoners Return To Jail

Two county jail prisoners on work-furlough, who failed to return to their jail cells Saturday night, trudged into the sheriff's office about 5 o'clock this morning and gave themselves up.

Leroy P. Grunhauser, 20, of 57 Wreden avenue, Fairfax, and Eugene James Nelson, 25, of 652 McClay road, Novato, were back in jail today. Normally, they would be released every morning to work and would return at night and on weekends to serve their sentences.

Grundhauser was sentenced last September to one year in jail for burglary. Nelson was sentenced last month to 90 days for violation of probation from a previous offense.

Fire Damages Apartment In Fairfax

Fire destroyed the living room chesterfield in an apartment at 107 Live Oak avenue, Fairfax, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. James Helmick and caused an estimated $1,000 damage yesterday.

Cause of the fire was listed by the Fairfax Fire Department as a cigarette which may have smoldered in the chesterfield some time before the fire was noticed. The Helmicks were not at home when the blaze broke out.

Ads, Editorial Page, Comics Rank High With I-J Readers, Poll Shows

More than 90 per cent of responses so far indicated readership "regularly" or "sometimes" of advertising, editorials, comics and the magazine supplement. Less than 10 per cent of readers responded that they "never" look at any of these features.

Deadline for mailing entries in the I-J $100 circulation guessing contest is midnight tonight. Winner will be announced next Saturday. Entry information appears in today's paper on page 15.

Opinion poll returns thus far indicate regular display advertising is read all or part of the time by nearly 100 per cent of readers, with grocery market ads and classified also attracting 90 per cent or more.

On the editorial page, "Cynic's Corner" cartoon attracts the greatest number of regular readers. It is followed closely by "What Our Readers Say," the daily editorial cartoon and the I-J editorials.

"The Berrys" and "Lolly" are the two best-read comic strips, attracting more than 75 per cent of readers. Two humor panels on the comics page, "There Oughta Be a Law" and "The Neighbors," are read by more than 90 per cent of those responding to the poll thus far.

SOME FREIGHT TRAINS ARE TOO DARN LONG

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—The automobiles lined up yesterday while a Union Pacific freight train passed a crossing.

Inmate Found Hanging From Belt In Cell

A 21-year-old San Quentin Prison inmate was found unconscious this morning, dangling from a belt-noose he had fastened to bars of a holding cell where he was placed last night.

Edward Le Clair imprisoned in August, 1957, on a 6-month-to-5-year term for stealing a car in Contra Costa County, was discovered at 6:10 a.m. by correctional officer D. P. Fichera and R. C. Summy, medical technician assistant.

He had been checked every five minutes for fear he might try to take his life, said Associate Warden W. D. Achuff. His rescuers loosened the belt from outside the cell, then revived Le Clair by artificial respiration. Later, at the prison hospital, he was reported in satisfactory condition.

Achuff said Le Clair was found bleeding profusely last night from 13 razor cuts on the left arm. The cuts were not serious, however, so the prisoner was placed in the holding cell.

The deputy warden said Le Clair had been in minor trouble at the prison, but there had been nothing until last night to indicate he wished to end his life.

Utilities Tax Fight Hearing Under Way

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A 10-year battle between private utilities and common taxpayers groups should be settled one way or another during the present session of the Legislature, Assemblyman Glenn Coolidge, (R-Felton) said today.

Coolidge, chairman of a Joint Legislative Committee on Assessment Practices, made that statement in calling to order a full-scale hearing on the hotly-disputed proposal that utilities and common property be taxed on the same basis.

ADEQUATE STUDY

"At least four legislative committees have attacked this problem before it was given to us," Coolidge said. "Tens of thousands of dollars have been spent by the Legislature on assessment - equalization problems.

He cautioned that if the Legislature did not solve the problem at this session, "court action is a very real possibility."

Coolidge, a real estate operator in private life, scoffed at suggestions that it would be impossible to place a value on utility property.

"It is possible to find the value of any commercial enterprise, big or small," he said.

However, the chairman also said he was "amazed" that anyone would suggest that a utility, with its built-in monopoly features, could be valued "just like a factory."

TAX INEQUITY

He claimed PG&E was faced with a "serious tax inequity" which he said "discriminates against utility customers.

"Our customers are entitled to equity as ratepayers as well as taxpayers. A major factor in rates is taxes."

Gerdes suggested that the committee work out a method of taxing utilities and common property on the same basis and make the change "over a long enough period of time so that the finances of local governments will not be disturbed."

The hearing was touched off by a committee report last month which urged that, over a period of 10 years, all property in California be assessed at about 30 percent of its market value for taxing purposes.

Utilities property is now assessed at about 50 per cent of market value, the report found, and private property at about 25 per cent of sale value.

Details Asked Of Kennedy Bribe Offer

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A second Republican member of the Senate Rackets Committee demanded today that Chief Counsel Robert F. Kennedy reveal names of witnesses who offered political help for his brother if he would go easy on them.

The 32-year-old counsel, whose brother is Sen. John F. Kennedy, (D-Mass.), said Friday that such offers had been made but that he had ignored them and the committee's investigations had proceeded.

Sen. Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind.) voiced the demand today that Robert Kennedy identify the witnesses involved. Sen. Karl E. Mundt, (R-S.D.) sounded the first call Saturday for the counsel to tell all.

Mundt said he would insist that Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) call a meeting promptly so that the situation could be "fully explored and publicly exposed." He called it "by far the most shocking development in the two-year history of our committee."

Channel Markers In Bay Protested

Issuance of a permit to allow the Gallinas Boat Club of Gallinas Village to drive 40 piles as channel markers in San Pablo Bay from the mouth of Gallinas Creek is not expected for several days, a spokesman for the Army Corps of Engineers said today.

March 7 was previously set at as the deadline for written objections to be submitted to the corps of engineers, he said, but one letter from a property owner near Gallinas Creek was received last week, and the deadline has been extended "for a reasonable time" to allow him to make formal protest.

Snow Again Swirls Over Great Lakes, Elsewhere It Rains

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Winter flexed its muscles again today with snow squalls swirling across the already overburdened Great Lakes region and a warning of heavy snow in upper New York state.

South of the snow, rain hit much of the East during the night from Mississippi north to Illinois, the Ohio Valley and the lower Great Lakes.

The new snow, generally light, came on top of one of the worst late season snowstorms in decades in parts of the Midwest. The storm last Thursday and Friday dumped up to 20 inches of snow across northeast Iowa, Wisconsin and Michigans upper peninsula. At least 46 deaths were blamed on the storm.

2,000 Attend Opening Of Greenbrae Lanes

More than 2,000 persons thronged the new Greenbrae Lanes bowling alley over the weekend as the new $800,000 establishment opened "quietly" for business.

Formal opening ceremonies are expected to be held early next month. The business is located on Sir Francis Drake boulevard near Highway 101 in Larkspur.

Thomas R. Coates, manager, said the bowlers continued to knock down pins until 5 a.m. Saturday and Sunday. He said the only "bugs" found in the partially completed plant were in the 24 new $8,000 pin setting machines. He said a crew led by Frank Arbo, chief pin setter mechanic, worked around the clock to clear up the trouble by Saturday afternoon.

Coates said the high score for the weekend was made by Reno Ghilotti of San Rafael, who bowled a 223 game.

Marin Citian Knife Victim

George Griffin, 34-year-old Marin City laborer, suffered a minor stab wound on the left thigh early Saturday during a battle with several unknown assailants near the Marin City shopping center, the sheriff's office reported.

Griffin, who was treated at Marin General Hospital, told officers he was attacked by a group of men who feared he would report them for gambling. Sheriff's deputies were unable to find any gambling in progress at the housing project.

Earlier, deputies discovered Frederick C. Barnes, 26, of San Francisco, lying in front of the Waldo Market in Marin City, suffering from minor cuts of the face, chin and left forearm. Barnes insisted he had not been in a fight. He claimed he fell on a broken bottle. He was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Macmillan To Meet De Gaulle

PARIS (AP) — British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan today began a swing around the capitals of his major allies in search of a Western policy to take into negotiations with the Soviet Union.

Arriving in Paris to confer with President Charles de Gaulle, Macmillan said he feels the Soviets want to negotiate on Berlin.

"The Soviets accept that these immediate problems—Berlin, Germany and so on—ought to be settled by negotiations," Macmillan said.

He conceded there are wide differences between the West and the Soviets. He said in view of this, it is all the more important for the Western Allies to get together "to confirm our common policy and purpose."

Paris was Macmillan's first stop. The prime minister returns to London tomorrow night and flies Thursday to Bonn to give West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer a fill-in. On March 19 he arrives in Washington to go over the Western views with President Eisenhower.

At the end of his tour, Macmillan said yesterday, he hopes the West will have concerted "a policy which will be firm and yet flexible enough to reach a successful conclusion of any negotiations."

French Capture Newsman's Killers

ALGIERS, Algeria (AP)—Four nationalist rebels who killed an American and a German and wounded another American in western Algeria last week have been reported killed by French troops.

French troops were sent out to hunt down the killers of Homer Flint Kellems, 65, of Siloam Springs, Ark., and Raimund Airele, a German translater.

Poland Sentences Ex-Nazi To Death

WARSAW (UPI) — One-time Nazi gauleiter Erich Koch was sentenced to death today for the wartime slaying of 76,000 Poles and 200,000 Jews.

When the verdict was announced, the courtroom crowd burst into cheers.

The trial, the longest war-crimes tribunal ever held in Poland and perhaps the last in Europe of a major Nazi, ended just 10 days short of five months. Koch's wife Ilse, was also convicted of war crimes.

Communists Gain In France

PARIS (AP)—After a brief flirtation with President Charles de Gaulle, steady followers of France's Communist party were back in the Red fold today. They may have brought along a few friends.

This was the most striking result of elections held throughout France and many overseas territories yesterday for municipal councilors.

On all fronts the Communists rallied from their setback last fall in the election of the new National Assembly. The Communist percentage of the vote then dropped from the 24 per cent they had maintained in most postwar elections to about 18 per cent.

Returns from the big cities and most of the smaller towns indicated the Reds again took about 1 vote in every 4 yesterday.

W. German Socialist Chief Meets Nikita, Feels Optimistic

BERLIN (AP) — West Germany's Socialist chief, Erich Ollenhauer, met today with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, then declared he thought the Soviets would make every effort to solve the Berlin crisis without war.

Ollenhauer met for two hours with Khrushchev at the latter's invitation. Then the Socialist chieftain held a news conference.

Ollenhauer said he came away optimistic about the prospects of an East-West settlement after the meeting in the Soviet Embassy in East Berlin.

"I have the impression that on the Russian side all efforts will be made to solve the problem peacefully and to avoid a conflict," Ollenhauer told the news conference in West Berlin.

"I came away with the impression that the Soviets are ready to negotiate, and want to do so quickly and are willing to have a thorough debate of concrete proposals from both sides," Ollenhauer said.

"Given good will on both sides I am convinced that a peaceful solution can be found.

6 Girls Injured When Car Plunges Off Bank

Six young girls and a 21-year-old youth were injured at 8:15 p.m. Saturday when their two-door sedan ran off Donohue street in Marin City and plunged 150 feet down an embankment.

The California Highway Patrol said the car, owned by Peter Henderson, 21, of House 550, Marin City, was driven by 14-year-old Deborah Jean Williams of San Francisco.

Miss Williams suffered a possible fracture of the pelvis. Henderson, who was riding in the crowded vehicle, suffered only minor bruises, as did Willie Jean Adams, 15, of House 677; Etta L. Newton, 15, of House 674; Sandra E. Mitchell, 15, of House 730; Rose Beauchamp, 15, of House 722, and Jessie Adams of House 677.

All were taken by ambulance to Marin General Hospital. Miss Williams was transferred to San Francisco General Hospital and the others were released.

Catholics Dedicate Novato School

Most Rev. Hugh A. Donohoe, auxiliary bishop of San Francisco, officiated. The dedication address was delivered by Rev. John T. Foudy, superintendent of schools for the archdiocese of San Francisco.

A feature of the ceremonies was the participation of four priests who have served as pastors of the Novato church. Among them was Rev. James Kiely, who served the Novato parish from 1904 to 1908 and is now retired and living in Petaluma.

Other former pastors of the parish who took part are Fathers James O'Connor (1941-1944), Denis Kelly (1953-1956) and Aloysius Sullivan (1956).

The school, at Grant and Virginia avenues in Novato, was opened last September and now has an enrollment of 150 children in the three primary grades. A new grade is to be added each year until the school reaches eight grades.

Teaching is by two Ursuline nuns, Mother Mary William, principal, and Mother Mary Florence, and a lay teacher, Nita A. Webb.

Yesterday's ceremony came during the parish's celebration of its 70th anniversary. The Novato church was founded as a mission in 1889.

A selective burglar stole only a piggy bank containing about $20 and left many valuables untouched at the Robert Waxman home in San Rafael's Loch Lomond district, police reported today.

The burglary was discovered about 4 p.m. yesterday by David Glazer of Greenbrae, father-in-law of Waxman, who manages the Marin Motor Movies in San Rafael.

Police said the break-in occurred sometime during the past week while Waxman and his family were away on vacation. Their home is at 34 Lochinvar road.

Entry was gained by smashing a sliding glass door at the rear of the house, reported Officer John Kingston. He said other money in the house, plus jewelry and a wide variety of valuables were overlooked by the intruder. It was the fourth burglary in the Loch Lomond area within a week.

Candidates for the two posts may file with the County Superintendent of Schools before the deadline of April 17. None had filed as of yesterday for the Fairfax School Board.

San Geronimo Hears Rules On Sewer District

A election to establish a sanitary district for San Geronimo Valley could be held within 60 days after public hearings, 30 persons attending a public meeting at Lagunitas School were told Saturday night.

William L. Desmond, director of sanitation for the Marin County Health Department, and County Counsel Leland H. Jordan attended the meeting called by the Woodacre Improvement Club to discuss procedures necessary to setting up such a district.

Costs involved in setting up the district, reported Desmond, would depend on the size of the area involved. Not until an engineering survey is made would it be possible to predict total cost of the development, he said.

No action was taken at the meeting to start proceedings to form a district. "In fact," said John T. Kielty, improvement club president, "I don't think there is any real movement at this time supporting the idea."

The two county spokesmen merely outlined the mechanics necessary to set up a district, he added.

Needed to put the wheels in motion, would be a petition signed by at least 25 residents. The county board of supervisors then would schedule public hearings and could call for an election after 60 days from the time of the last hearing.

Jordan reported that financing could be handled either through a bond issue financed by the entire district, or by connection and service charges made to district users, or both.

Bishop Pike Dedicates Hammond Hall

Hammond Hall of the Episcopal Church of Our Savior in Mill Valley was dedicated at 11 a.m. services yesterday by Bishop James A. Pike of the Episcopal Diocese of California.

Later, at a meeting in the hall, Bishop Pike blessed the "coat of arms" designed to honor Rev. S. R. Hammond, former rector of the church for whom the hall was named, and four of his sons who followed him into the ministry.

The four who followed in their father's footsteps were: Wallis Reid Hammond, former rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Beaumont, Riverside County; Frederick C. Hammond, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church in San Bernardino; John Keith, who died last October and was formerly rector of St. John's in San Bernardino, and S. Murray Hammond, who followed his father as rector of the Church of Our Savior.

The senior Hammonds, who reside in San Rafael, also have another son and a daughter: H. Reginald Hammond, Shafter educator, and Mrs. Walter Biggers of La Puente, Los Angeles County.

Park District To Be Discussed

A report on the proposed Tiburon Peninsula Regional Park District will be given at the tomorrow evening meeting of the Belvedere Recreation Commission in the city offices at 8 o'clock, according to Chairman E. Allan Steinau.

Plans for the restroom facilities in Belvedere's community park will also be discussed, Steinau said.

Secretary Arrested, Then It's Hubby's Turn

A 50-year-old legal secretary from Novato had her husband arrested on assault and battery charges Saturday, less than 24 hours after her own arrest on charges of drunkenness, disturbing the peace and resisting arrest.

The secretary, Mrs. Gladys Cooper Crawford of 1530 Indian Valley road, complained to sheriff's deputies Saturday night that her husband, Reginald struck her during an argument in their home.

She signed a citizen warrant for his arrest and he was jailed at 8 p.m. in San Rafael. He faces the added charge of disturbing the peace. Bail was set at $750.

Mrs. Crawford's troubles began in Belvedere about 10:30 p.m. Friday when a bystander reported to Deputy Sheriff Ed Klementovich that she was slapping her teen-age daughter in the parking lot of the Tiburon Playhouse.

Klementovich said the daughter told him it was a personal squabble. And he quoted Mrs. Crawford as saying, "It's none of your business, you lousy cop . . . I'll have the book thrown at you."

The deputy said Mrs. Crawford hurled a volley of vulgar abuse at him, after which he tried to get her into her husband's car. He was assisted by Sgt. Frank Costa and Officer Connie Tarabella of the Belvedere Police Department.

During this effort by the three officers, Klementovich said, Mrs. Crawford gave him a swift kick in the chest.

When her husband showed up, she shouted curses at him, too, the deputy reported.

Mrs. Crawford finally was placed in a patrol car and taken to the county jail, where, officers said, she created another disturbance at the booking desk. She was placed in a padded cell and later released on $600 bail posted by bail bondsman James Stragnola. She is to appear in Marin Municipal Court tomorrow at 1:30 p.m.

The kick Klementovich received caused him such pain he thought a rib had been broken. He was X-rayed at Marin General Hospital, but no fracture was found.

Marin Couple To Inherit $¼ Million

A San Rafael couple inherit a quarter of an estate estimated to be near one million dollars, under terms of the will of Alice Griffith, San Francisco welfare worker and philanthropist.

The terms of the will were made known yesterday.

One-fourth share of the huge estate was left in trust to William and Catherine Grant of 34 Ridge avenue, San Rafael. Grant was a godson of Miss Griffith. She reared and educated him after he lost his parents as a child.

Mrs. Griffith died Feb. 22 at the age of 94 in her San Francisco home. She was the daughter of Millen Griffith, who arrived in San Francisco in 1849, started a tugboat business and amassed a fortune.

Miss Griffith helped found the Telegraph Hill Neighborhood House, San Francisco's first settlement house, in 1902. She also helped set up the first San Francisco Housing Assn. after the earthquake and fire of 1906, and to establish Bothin Convalescent Home, Garden Hospital and San Francisco's first tuberculosis examination center.

One-half of her estate is to be divided among three nieces; an eighth among three nephews, and the remaining eighth between the San Francisco Foundation and Trinity Episcopal Church.

In recent meetings, the group has heard complaints by members of minority races of discrimination against them in the sale and rental of houses in virtually all portions of the county.

End Of Pollution Would Restore Fishing Industry

BERKELEY (AP) — A University of San Francisco biology professor says elimination of pollution in San Francisco Bay would permit establishment of a 300 million dollar fishing industry.

Dr. Francis P. Felice told the regional council of the California State Chamber of Commerce Friday that commercial clam beds in the bay yielded high returns early in the century.

But he said the last clam was taken commercially from the bay in 1949; the last oyster in 1947.

The first child for the Charles Montes.

The first grandchild for D. Frank Monte, partner in Chapel of the Hills and former mayor of San Anselmo.

The first great-grandchild for John Laursen, also of the El Camino address, who is the father of Mrs. Charles Monte's mother, Mrs. Lenore Angel.

Anthony Mosunic of San Francisco has applied to the Army Corps of Engineers for a permit to build a bulkhead along a privately dredged channel on the east side of Strawberry Point in Richardson Bay.

Persons wishing to protest the application must submit written objections in triplicate to the Army Engineers in San Francisco by April 6.

Drunk Driving Suspect Jailed After Battle

A drunken driving suspect was arrested by Marin County sheriff's deputies at a Novato drive-in cafe yesterday, but not before a group of youths threatened to come to his aid.

Deputy Charles E. Newman said he drove his patrol car to the Hi-Fi Drive-In on Mirabella avenue after hearing a loud crash about 1:25 a.m.

Newman said Joseph Manuel Cotallo, 20, of 719 Lamont avenue, Novato, had driven his car over a curb, then backed into a power pole guy wire.

As Newman approached the car, he said, a group of youths swarmed around it. One got into the driver's seat and was about to drive away when he was removed from the vehicle.

Newman radioed for assistance and was quickly joined by Sgt. Joseph Mooney and Deputies Ernest Nielsen, Gerald Fries and Newell Snyder.

The officers said Cotallo battled them when they tried to place him in a patrol car. He was subdued by force and taken to San Rafael General Hospital for treatment of an eye cut which the officers said he had suffered earlier in the evening.

Besides drunken driving Cotallo was charged with being drunk in and about an auto and resisting arrest. He was released last night on $813 bail and ordered to appear in Marin Municipal Court at 1:30 p.m. today.

Dulles Takes Spins In Park, Visits Home

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles spent a pleasant weekend, leaving his hospital suite twice for rides through a nearby park. He also visited his home briefly and later discussed the Berlin situation with two aides.

The first trip Saturday afternoon lasted about 30 minutes. In bright sunshine, he rode through Rock Creek Park with Mrs. Dulles. Aides reported he thoroughly enjoyed the outing, his first since he entered Walter Reed Army Hospital Feb. 10 for a hernia operation.

The ride was made a few hours after he resumed X-ray treatments for cancer. The treatments had been suspended since he received an injection of radioactive gold last Tuesday.

Accident Victim Asks $120,000

A San Francisco family is suing a Sausalito woman for $120,000 damages as a result of a two-car collision on Highway 101, south of Corte Madera, one year ago.

Margaret Kane, 18, and her brother Robert Kane, 19, both of San Francisco, filed the suit Friday in Marin Superior Court through their mother, Mrs. Mary Kane. Defendant is Mrs. Sally Short White, 34, of Sausalito.

The mishap occurred March 8, 1958, about one-fourth mile south of Corte Madera. Highway patrol officers said Mrs. White was apparently making a U-turn across the highway when her car was hit broadside by Kane's southbound vehicle.

Miss Kane seeks $100,000 for injuries she says she suffered about the head, face and body, including a fractured right hand. Her brother asks for $20,000 for his injuries.

Mountain Play Tryouts Set

More tryouts for the Mountain Play will be held at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at Park School auditorium in Mill Valley. Major leads for "The Pied Piper" are still open. No more children are needed.

Theater experience is not necessary, according to manager Bob Flanagan, but good voice projection is helpful.

This year, rehearsals will be held in Marin and the emphasis will be on making it a local production. Veteran Mountain Play director Dan Totheroh will direct.

"The Pied Piper" has been produced several times in the nearly half-century of plays presented atop Mt. Tamalpais. Production date will be May 17.

Announce Way To Help Drain All 8 Sinus Cavities Without Discomfort

New decongestant tablet for sinus congestion sufferers acts both to drain clogged sinus cavities and relieve distressing head pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) Announcement has been made of a new tablet development which has the remarkable ability to help drain clogged sinus cavities and thus relieve congestion and pressure. The headaches, pressure pains, stuffed-up head, nasal drip, clogged breathing—all the unrelenting symptoms the sinus sufferer knows so well—are attacked directly by improving drainage of the sinus areas.

Most remarkable of all is the fact that this is accomplished with extraordinary speed and without discomfort of any kind. This new tablet does its remarkable work internally, through the blood stream. It deposits into every drop of blood plasma a new medication which is carried to the sinus area, where it shrinks the swollen doors to the sinus cavities and helps drain away the pain-causing pressure and congestion.

The shrinking substance in this new tablet has been so successful topically in promoting drainage of the sinus cavities that it is now prescribed more widely by doctors than any material for this purpose. This new medication is now available at drug counters without the need for a prescription under the name, Dristan® Decongestant Tablets. Dristan Tablets cost only 98¢ for a bottle of 24 tablets. Buy and use Dristan Tablets with the absolute guarantee that they will drain away pain-causing pressure and congestion of the sinus cavities, relieve the pain and distress, or purchase price will be refunded.

New York Firm Again Tries To Share Guide Dogs Funds

Just six years ago we found it necessary in this space to warn the people of Marin that a New York organization was trying to cash in on contributions which normally would be destined for Marin's Guide Dogs For the Blind, Inc.

We're sorry to report that it is happening again.

Then an organization which changed its name from Guiding Eyes, Inc., to Guide Dogs Foundation For the Blind, blanketed the West with letters requesting donations at exactly the same time as Guide Dogs For the Blind was conducting its annual campaign.

Now an organization dubbing itself Guiding Eyes For the Blind, Inc., is doing the same thing. It must be more than a coincidence that this New York firm, which for all we know is the same old one under another name, sent out letters dated March 2 asking donations. March 2 is the date of the opening of Guide Dogs For the Blind's annual fund campaign.

Now actually we know little or nothing about this New York group. We don't know what facilities they have, how many blind people they furnish dogs to, how they operate. We know a great deal about Guide Dogs For the Blind.

We know that Guide Dogs operates a school just north of San Rafael where they train both dogs and blind people so that they work as a team in carrying on a normal life. We know it doesn't cost the blind person a cent, not even for board and room during the month of training with the dog right there at the school.

We know that Guide Dogs For the Blind has presented 765 dogs to 248 women and 517 men, and trained them to work together. Of these, 134 were war veterans.

We know that last year alone, 111 men and women came to the Marin facilities, learned to use their dogs and went home to a better life. That was the largest number ever to graduate from the school in one year.

We know that a staff of 25 persons, highly skilled and trained, do the entire job of making these people both happy and useful again.

And we know that the only place Guide Dogs gets its money is from generous people of California and other western states. It gets no taxes and no subsidies. This year they are seeking only $10,000 for continued operation.

Now if you are confused about which is Guide Dogs and which is Guiding Eyes or Guide Dogs Foundation, don't worry about it. Just remember this one fact. Guide Dogs For the Blind has only one school, just north of San Rafael. It has no New York or other Eastern connections. It doesn't solicit funds from a New York or Eastern address.

If you want to contribute to Guide Dogs For the Blind, don't send it anywhere out of the state of California. If you want to contribute to the New York outfit, well . . . that's up to you.

Time To Bait Those Amazing Snails

Professional gardeners are warning us that it is time to start putting out snail bait for a new crop of snails. We heed their warnings, of course, but at the same time we must confess to a feeling of amazement that any animal with such a complicated love life is so prolific.

Snails are sexaully ambidextrous — every gentleman snail being also a lady snail. In order to perpetuate their snail species, it is necessary that a he/she snail must have an affair with another he/she snail. The problems of selection and compatibility must be fierce.

It's rather hard to believe that old Slowpoke is a passionate creature. But perhaps he is not so slow after all. Maybe he is just hopelessly confused and who could blame him/her?

Anyway, the snails lay their eggs on their slimy, shiny trails as they glide along. And despite the complications of the snail's love life, there always seems to be an abundance of baby snails.

American Homes Now Boast More Television Sets Than Bathtubs

WE ARE NOT quite sure whether this marks a victory of culture over cleanliness, but a survey showed more American homes now have TV sets — 42,400,000 — than have bathtubs—41,500,000.

Rattlesnake meat is gaining favor as a cocktail tidbit. Connoisseurs say that if you just close your eyes, you can't tell the difference between it and chicken or frog legs.

Does your husband shine his own shoes: Three out of four American men now do.

It is getting so you have to stand in line to see a doctor, and it looks as if you'll have to wait even longer in the future. A shortage of physicians is expected for at least a dozen years, even if they enlarge present medical schools.

If you have trouble getting the right sized shoes, you might follow the example of the old Mayan Indians. They made their own footgear by dipping their feet repeatedly into raw latex from the nearest rubber tree and always got a perfect fit.

REMEMBER WHEN

10 YEARS AGO

Flanery's Grocery, next to the Blue Rock Hotel in Larkspur, was sold by Mrs. Laura B. Flanery, who was retiring from the grocery business. Purchasers were Lloyd and Elsa Tucker, who changed the name to Tucker's Grocery.

Dave Sanchez, director of the March of Dimes campaign, announced that about $20,000 had been banked as the drive came to a close.

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

To do a good job one needs encouragement. To play a good game, a team needs encouragement not only from the school, but from the public.

I think that good coverage of all high school sports in your newspaper will be an encouragement for the team to play good games with a lot of spirit.

I have closely observed the basketball team at my school and I feel that if the boys know the public is behind them, they will play a better game.

I wish to commend you and your sports staff for the fine coverage of all Marin Catholic basketball games. The articles that appeared in the paper concerning the games have always been true and well written.

I hope this will continue in the future because your readers have been well pleased with these articles.

Long Understood Communism

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

For Norma Murray —

In 1943 I was considered too antagonistic to communism to spend one day in Russia with one of our chaplains and doctors.

In 1944 the Red Cross could not get me into Russia to serve our own American soldiers based there on bomber missions.

In 1947 a man in our State Department took the trouble of locating me under a new name living in New York City to call on me to tell me that I had a great understanding of Russians and all the information I had given him in 1945 before his mission to Moscow had turned out to be correct.

Upon my return to U.S.A. after a year on the Russian border I was criticized for being so antagonistic against "our great ally."

Norma Murray Should Know

EDITOR,

I believe Norma Murray's letter, "Mental Health Is A Spiritual Problem," brought out some excellent points that must be kept in mind if we are not to throw away much money and cause great damage in trying to solve our problems on mental health.

Miller Needs New Picture

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In the March 4 edition of your paper an article appeared telling of Rep. Clement W. Miller's January payroll.

What I am primarily concerned with is the unbecoming picture which accompanied that news release. It is a fact that there isn't anybody in the world who, at one time or another, hasn't taken a bad picture.

I am making a sincere public appeal to our Congressman. Please, Mr. Miller, take time out from your busy schedule to visit the photographer and have a better picture taken!

I know that the picture is not representative. It certainly doesn't reflect the seriousness and conscientious, he has so far shown, in carrying out his duties.

What Is Their Moral Premise?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I have been wondering on what moral premise (if any) rests the viewpoint expressed by B. M. Jones in his (or her) remarkable letter condemning the Short-Doyle Act as "socialized medicine" as "regimentation" as "forcing" all of us to pay taxes to be used for the need of some of us.

Perhaps the most basic fact of human development, as opposed to animal existance, lies in mutual aid and cooperation, and this fact, as a moral law, is expressed in the Christian answer to the question, "Am I my brothers keeper?" The answer, of course, for me is, "Yes, I am" and "Yes, we must undertake and pay for community responsibilities concerning the welfare of others."

But for B. M. Jones and others like him, there are many perhaps more cogent reasons, more clearly related to the self-interest, especially material self-interest. One among these is the consideration of the relative costs of easily available mental health services as preventative measures as compared to the costs, to which we are already committed, of care of the seriously mentally ill in state hospitals.

Further, there is the cost, incalculable but very real, of the loss of whatever contributions, economic and social, which these hospitalized mentally ill might be making to the communities they leave behind.

There are probably many other contributions the establishment of the mental health services could bring about which all might be listed under the heading "conservation of human resources," certainly among the most precious of resources we shall ever have to consider.

Sausalito Has More Money From Taxes, Meters, Library And Dogs

Increased bustle and activity in Sausalito could be the cause of increased revenues to the city's coffers as outlined in City Manager Don Duerr's current financial report.

It lists increases like sales tax $6,800; property taxes $4,200; parking meters $1,600.

Then, in succession, court fines $1,000; alcoholic beverage fees $200 and ambulance fees $150. (No connection indicated.)

The report even shows $150 increases from dog licenses and last but not least, in library fines.

TAMALPAIS VALLEY Fire Department is reading the riot act to some of the valley's residents.

Lots of other places in the county might well insist on the same thing.

MILL VALLEY auto dealer Herb Shapiro spent nigh onto three years making regular trips to the city council over disputes involving his property. His regular visits suddenly ceased about a year ago.

Last week, he was back — this time over a dispute with the planning commission on a sign he wanted to erect. As he approached the council rostrum, councilman Peter Behr greeted him with "glad to see you back, Herb. Where have you been?"

SEEMS WE failed to give credit last week where it was due. In commenting on a magazine ad which used a picture of Berry's in Tiburon as a background, we said the youngsters in the photo were professional models.

Plenty of readers have assured us in no uncertain terms that "models" were in fact local talent. We just plain goofed, for which we apologize.

Miss Aitken, incidentally, is a semi-Marinite. She has an el toro which she sails on Belvedere lagoon.

WE ARE DELIGHTED to report that Sausalito councilwoman Marjorie Brady is mended after her close call in an auto crash. Also that husband Col. Brookner Brady is well on the mend after fracturing his arm in the same collision.

There is some talk along Bridgeway that the State Department's protocol division may be consulted to clarify the question of whether a councilman outranks a retired colonel, or vice versa.

SAUSALITO'S RUCKUS'S over sandspit development, suits against arks (and Arques) and squabbles about a new police chief have obscured other impending activities.

There's some talk that John Ostrowski's embattled plan to build an overwater apartment in Shelter Cove may pop up again soon. If so, a repitition of last year's donnybrook is in the making.

SPEAKING OF arks, it is reported that Sam Zakessian has acquired the former Hadjes property now occupied by ramshackle abodes of a non-descrip nature. Same is in the process of demolishing them as time and inclination permit. Operator of Zack's at the foot of Turney street, he has not announced his plans for the area. In the meantime, the semi-demolished structures have been dubbed "Zack's shacks" by local wags. Quite a mouthful.

Both Parties Worked Themselves Into Jam By Refusing Income Tax Boost

The President's budget is now a football in a political scrimmage. Both parties are pretending that they are struggling to balance the budget. In fact neither the Administration nor the Congress shows any sign of being willing to vote the taxes which are absolutely essential if the budget is to be balanced.

As of now, both parties regard as untouchable the income tax rates which were fixed in 1954, the date of the Eisenhower reduction of taxes.

The President's budget plan, if we accept some rather fancy calculations, can be brought into balance — but only if Congress will raise postal rates and increase the gasoline taxes.

As Congress is certain to reject the new taxes, the official theory of the Democrats seems to be that they can balance the budget by cutting down on what the President has asked for in foreign aid.

BOTH PARTIES have now worked themselves into a jam which, considering the state of the world, is not an inspiring thing to look at.

The Republicans have gotten themselves into a position where they must "save" on spending for native American needs — such as education and public facilities, almost certainly also the national defense. But the Republicans, as the great savers, are implored by the President to spend abroad on foreign aid the sums they would like to spend here at home.

The Democrats on the other hand have worked themselves into the embarrassing position where they, the party of Wilson, Roosevelt, Truman, and Stevenson, are threatening to save on foreign aid in order to spend more at home.

SURELY, THERE is something inherently absurd in a situation where the Republicans are the globalists and the Democrats are the isolationists. Could such a topsy-turvy situation have developed if politicians in both parties had not forgotten the realities of our national needs while they play politics with the budget and with taxes?

What has happened to all these earnest and patriotic men? They have become entangled in a dogma which few of the members of Congress and none of the leaders in Washington have the courage to challenge.

What is the dogma? Is it that the budget should be balanced?

No. The budget should if possible be balanced.

The dogma which confuses the whole situation and the position of both parties is that the budget must be balanced without raising the income tax rates. The crux of the matter is the acceptance by both sets of political leaders of the dogma that the income tax rates of 1954 are sacrosanct.

ONCE THAT DOGMA is accepted, the budget cannot be balanced except by two equally unacceptable methods.

One is to balance it by taxes on consumption. This is something Congress won't now do.

The other method is to balance the budget at the expense of our national defense and of our foreign policy, and of our internal public needs and development. This is something that the country cannot afford to do.

Duncan Says Mom Was Blackmailed

VENTURA (AP)—Frank Duncan today supported his mother's story that she was being blackmailed by two men who say she hired them to kill her daughter-in-law.

The young attorney's testimony completed the defense case for Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan, 54, who is charged with plotting and buying the murder of Frank's 30-year-old pregnant bride, Olga.

Frank finished his testimony as the trial went into its fourth week.

He testified that his mother first told him of the purported blackmail last Nov. 22. This was five days after the disappearance of Olga, whose body later was found in a road side grave.

Frank testified that his mother told him that two men were blackmailing her because they were angry about a $500 legal fee that he had paid to Duncan.

Frank said his mother told him she had given the men $350 and they were demanding $2,000 more.

Frank told the jury:

"I asked her why she hadn't told me this before. She said it was because she didn't want to endanger my life and because Olga had disappeared." He added:

"I was extremely angry and told my mother I was going down to the bar where she said these men could be found. Mother insisted I go to the police. I did go to the police. I told the police my mother was being blackmailed."

Frank said he later took his mother to the police station to discuss her blackmail story and to look at pictures in the police file.

Moya and Augustine Baldonado, 26, have confessed that they strangled Olga after Mrs. Duncan promised to pay them $6,000.

Murphy called the authority "not good for the county." He said he "can't see what Marin has to gain from an authority." He maintained he is "one of the wishful thinkers" who believe the Gate span will be toll free.

James Adam, bridge general manager, said "there is not a single specific thing in the bill that will react to benefit Marin County." The county would have only one vote on a 13-man board and the supervisors would have only token authority to make that appointment, he said. He called the Gate bridge and the Bay bridge "the gold mines" that the authority wanted to take over to develop port facilities.

He challenged Senator McCarthy to answer four questions. The senator greed. They were:

Adam: What single specific benefit is there for Marin County in the authority?

McCarthy: There is no specific benefit spelled out for any area in this bill; it does not set up a project priority list. Three advantages would be (a) regional planning; (b) assistance in acquiring an airport; (c) planning of a new bridge which the county will eventually need.

Adam: Do you favor a toll-free bridge?

McCarthy: I certainly don't. How could we possibly ever get another crossing if one was toll-free?

Adam: What damage would be done to the bill if the Golden Gate Bridge were excluded?

McCarthy: The damage of loss of future helpful coordination for the benefit of the people of Marin, the people I represent.

Adam: Don't you believe the people of Marin and the district should vote on being taken over?

McCarthy: Everyone's talking about "being taken over" or "taking away." We're not trying to take anything away. The bridge is still there and operating. We're trying to give the people something, a better operation.

The senator then said that if there is a real concern about Mendocino and Del Norte residents facing possible taxation without representation, he is willing to amend the bill so that in case taxation become possible, those two counties would get representation on the board.

The authority would have no taxing authority except that which the bridge district now has.

IRAQ

of what he called the "lies" put out by Baghdad.

The key to the struggle at this point was the army. Kassem had a strong armored force centered around Baghdad, while Shawaf had a force equipped with armor and light artillery ideally suited for fighting in the mountainous terrain around Mosul.

Shawaf has emeged as an anti-Communist sympathetic to the Arab nationalism of United Arab Republic President Gamal Abdel Nasser.

Moscow Radio expressed full Soviet backing for Kassem today. It parroted Baghdad Radio claims that the revolt had been crushed and declared that "all national progressive forces of Iraq are supporting the Kassem government."

The 35-year-old career soldier, although a Kurdish tribesman from the militant north of his country, did not appear to have injected the question of Kurdish nationalism into the fight.

The Soviet Union has sought to stir up Kurdish feelings for freedom in recent months throughout the Mideast area. But Shawaf appears to have spurned any involvement with Russia and instead has assailed Kassem as a "red leader" accepting aid from the Communists.

After several dives by Air Police Sgt. John Lindsay, the body was found and brought ashore. Dr. Edward Gibson, also from Hamilton, applied artificial respiration for about 90 minutes without success.

Coroner Frank J. Keaton said an autopsy confirmed that drowning was the cause of death.

Deputy Baker said Sergeant Lindsay told him the Cruz boy had been under a doctor's care for a digestive disorder which had caused him to suffer convulsions.

Pleas Differ In Dope Case

Smith pleaded guilty to the charge before Judge Richard M. Sims in Marin Superior Court. Judge Sims set March 30 at 10 a.m. for a report from the probation department. He allowed Smith to remain free on $3,500 bail. Smith was accompanied by his counsel, John L. Rockwell.

Stern pleaded not guilty to the charge of marijuana possession. A trial date was scheduled to be set March 23 at 10 a.m. Stern was represented by attorney Jay R. MacMahon.

The two were arrested Feb. 11 by Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos and his flying squad, who found about $2,500 worth of raw marijuana at the Muir Beach home of Smith. The civil engineer had offices in Tiburon.

Sheriff Mountanos said he got a tip that Stern had bought a bag of marijuana for $20 from Smith at a Tiburon restaurant.

Bloom, acquainted with Lipps through relatives in West Marin, thought the boys had been in an accident. He helped treat their many cuts and bruises. Gradually he became suspicious, however. He notified Christensen.

The deputy described the area about Sundberg's as looking like a "buffalow wallow" when he arrived. He said torn clothing was in evidence everywhere, with bloodstains on the ground and walls.

Deputy Sheriff Kenneth Irving had gone as far as Tocaloma in search of the missing youths when word was received from Bloom.

The four were taken to the county jail and booked at 2:30 a.m. on charges of disturbing the peace and illegal possession of beer. In Cooney's car the officers discovered two six-packs of beer.

All were released on $150 bail last night and ordered to appear in Marin Municipal Court at 1:30 p.m. today.

BRAVES' HURLER TOO EXPESIVE?

Giants Make Pitch For Conley

(Combined AP & UPI)

The word floating back and forth between the Arizona Cactus and the Florida Citrus is that the San Francisco Giants could win the National League pennant this year if . . .

The if is another right-handed pitcher. His name is Gene Conley and at the moment he is performing for the Boston Celtics of the National Basketball Assn., and carrying on a side feud with the Milwaukee Braves.

The Braves don't like the idea of their chattel playing basketball when he could be working out with the club, for which he didn't win a game last year.

He is trade bait, and the Giants have admitted they've reached the talking stage of a deal for the lanky right-hander. But so far the asking price has been too high.

A case in point happened yesterday when the Cleveland Indians licked the Giants, 3-2, in Phoenix, Ariz.

Paul Giel forced in the winning run in the eighth inning by walking pitcher John Briggs. Vic Power, who had opened the inning with a triple, scored and that was the ball game.

The game was quite a contrast to Friday's opening day slugfest when the Giants connected with five homers on the way to a 13-10 win.

Highlight for San Francisco yesterday was a four-inning shutout stint by the 20-year-old ex-bonus baby Mike McCormick. His successors on the hill ran into trouble, however, and the Giant cause was lost when Giel walked in Briggs with the bases loaded in the eighth.

Tomorrow, the San Franciscans meet Chicago and Manager Bill Rigney has named the front-line hurling trio of John Antonelli, Curt Barclay and Billy Muffett to toe the slab.

Rigney said Jack Sanford, who was scheduled to work yesterday, will probably start Wednesday's contest. He sat out yesterday's game because of a sore shoulder.

The pitchers had a short workout today and a few hitters asked and were granted some time in the batting cage, but most of the Giants took the day off.

In developments off the diamond, club Vice President Chub Fenney said he had asked pitcher Al Worthington to come to camp and work out while he and the club made a final effort to agree on a salary for the unsatisfied Worthington.

"We are getting closer together on this salary dispute," said Feeney, but he added he did not know whether Worthington would come into camp soon.

Marin Tars Sweep Baseball Openers

Coach Ed Grimm's College of Marin Tars opened their Golden Valley Conference baseball season Saturday by sweeping a double-header from Shasta J.C. at the Kentfield diamond.

Getting excellent pitching from lefty Bobby DeRosa and a key hit by third-sacker Ed Schulze, the Tars eked out a 4-3 triumph in the nine-inning opener. Then, with Ken Soldavini turning in a brilliant relief pitching job, Marin romped to an 8-2 triumph in the seven-inning nightcap.

DeRosa limited Shasta to five hits while striking out six and walking three in the first game. Schulze was a hero on two occasions. A diving stop of a line drive in the sixth inning prevented two Shasta runs from scoring. Then he singled home the tying and winning runs in the eighth frame after Bill Ahern singled, Gene Klein walked and DeRosa sacrificed them into scoring position.

Schulze and Dave Ferris each collected two hits and Fred Pfeffer got a triple for the victors.

Righthander Soldavini, former San Rafael High School star, stepped into the limelight in the third inning of the nightcap after Shasta scored two runs off starter lefty Butch Warmington. With no outs, Soldavini came in to retire the side without further damage and then pitched no-hit, no-run ball for the remainder of the game, striking out eight.

In the meantime Marin was getting on Shasta pitching for five runs in the fourth frame and three more in the fifth to make it a run-away. Schulze got two hits and drove in three runs. Ahern, DeRosa and Bob Kelleher each got two hits also.

Sellout Seen For Regionals At Cow Palace

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A sell-out crowd of more than 16,000 fans will jam the Cow Palace Friday night when the N.C.A.A. Regionals get under way, California Athletic Director Greg Englehard said today.

Ticket sales zoomed after the Golden Bears backed into the Pacific Coast Conference championship Friday night — and then whacked Oregon State, 55-52, Saturday to prove they are worthy champions. Actually coach Pete Newell's club clinched the crown while idle on Friday as UCLA dumped Washington.

Here is the opening line-up for the playoffs:

TOUGH SCHEDULE

Tonight, Arizona State University tangles with New Mexico State at Las Cruces, N.M. After a rest tomorrow, Idaho State goes south to play the winner either at Las Cruces or at Tempe, Ariz. That leaves Thursday for travelling for the ultimate victor—and the club then will take on the strong Gaels.

The all-star card looks so attractive to Bay Area fans that it is expected to be a sell-out both nights. Englehard said that if there are indications of a sell-out the second night, the finals would be televised locally.

The wind-up of the cage season also showed these final results: Washington State 70, 63; Southern California, 80, Washington 74; Santa Clora 70, U.S.F. 64.

GAME WARDEN GETS 102-POUND STURGEON WITH A FLY ROD!

Game Warden Al Giddings yesterday accomplished an angling feat that is the talk of the Marin County sports world. He caught a 102-pound sturgeon on a 5½-ounce fly rod!!

The amazing battle took place on San Pablo Bay near Corregidor Island and it required 2 hours and 55 minutes to subdue the 77-inch monster. The battle covered an area of approximately two miles.

It all came about when Giddings and fellow Warden Russ Ild, patrolling the bay in a patrol boat, took time out for lunch and a bit of fishing. In fives minutes Giddings had a five-pound striper. Ten minutes later the whopping sturgeon hit Giddings' 2/0 hook, baited with sardine, and the duel was on.

Witnessing the struggle were Mr. and Mrs. Red Scanlon of Mill Valley, who were anchored alongside the patrol boat for the lunch period. The Scanlons, by the way, had given Giddings the Fenwick rod as a Christmas present.

Two Upsets Mark Opening Of Indian Valley Tourney

Defending champion Bud Sparrow won his first test as expected, and Jerry Evans and Tom Hardcastle posted upsets yesterday to highlight the first round of match play in the second annual Indian Valley Golf Club Spring Handicap Tournament.

Sparrow played steady golf to turn back Orv Boyer, 2 up, but Evans and Hardcastle stole the spotlight by knocking over a couple of tournament vets. Evans, playing his first tourney, canned a long putt on the 18th hole to defeat Fred Volz, 1 up, while Hardcastle nipped veteran Byron Dickson, 2 and 1.

One of the tighest matches of the day saw Mack Kelso edge John Badurra on the 19th hole. Both are 13 handicappers and tournament veterans and Kelso got the edge with a birdie on the par 5 19th.

Following are first round results:

Bud Sparrow d. Orv Boyer, 2 up; Bill Silver d. Joe Heming, 1 up; Nort Dawson d. Lou Denton, 5 and 4; Jerry Evans d. Fred Volz, 1 up; Jack Lashua d. George Anderson, 2 up; Al Leach d. H. J. Ross, 6 and 5; Warren Smith d. Pete Peters, 2 and 1; Steve Meuse d. Carl Williams, 3 and 1;

Tom Hardcastle d. Byron Dickson, 2 and 1; Tom Aberson d. Byrne Davis, 4 and 2; Tony Taveggia d. H. S. McBride, 6 and 5; K. J. Beard d. Charles Barr, 5 and 4; Andy Sommerville d. Frank Cangelosi, 1 up; Tom Washington d. Frank Valim, 3 and 1; Mack Kelso d. John Badurra, 19th; Charles Coleman d. Fred Meyer, 2 up.

Sports Car Flips, Driver Is Killed

BOCA RATON, Fla. (AP) — A sports car race had a tragic aftermath when a machine which already had completed its 15 laps, rolled over and killed its driver.

HANLEY'S REPORT

By JACK HANLEY

PHOENIX, Ariz. — Meeting the Duke and Duchess of Windsor is an experience that might ruffle the poise of impressionable social climbers who probably would find themselves tongue-tied in the presence of royalty.

But when Andre Rodgers was presented to the man who gave up the throne of England "For the woman I love," the young man was as poised and polished as a veteran diplomat.

If anyone ever again tells us that Rodgers is a shy young man with traces of boyish bashfulness that might interefere with his chances of becoming the Giants' regular shortstop, we will relate this story:

It was opening day of the 1959 Cactus League with 5,333 fans jamming every seat in Hi Corbett Field at Tucson for the exhibition game between the Giants and Cleveland Indians.

The Duke and Duchess escorted by Tallant Tubbs, millionaire San Francisco sportsman, entered the park and went to a third base box reserved for them by Horace Stoneham and Eddie Brannick, president and secretary of the Giants.

Sports writers, interviewing the former king, were surprised to learn that his knowledge of baseball is more than superficial and that he knew Rodgers was a British subject.

"I'VE SEEN him before," said the Duke. I'd like to talk with him."

"He's busy now," said his wife, the former Wallis Simpson. "He's going to bat next."

This was in the third inning of the game during which the Giants scored three of their 13 winning runs. Rodgers laced a single through the infield and after being forced at second was met as he walked off the field by a reporter who told him the Duke would like to meet him.

Tubbs, an inveterate Giant fan who knows every member of the team by their first name, introduced Rodgers to the Duke and Duchess.

"Then you were 13 when I was there," said the Duke.

"That's right," said Rodgers. "I remember you well. I saw you there many times."

Without the slightest semblance of nervousness, Rodgers asked the Duke: "Are you enjoying yourself?" and man who once wore a crown smiled "Yes, surely."

"No, I go back to Nassau every year," he informed her and she said "There's no place like the Bahamas."

With gentlemanly ease, Rodgers agreed: "There is no place like it—there's no place like home."

At this juncture, a veteran newspaperman who had been told Rodgers was shy and difficult to talk to, expressed his amazement, saying:

"ANDRE, you're supposed to be a bashful young man—and here you are carrying on a delightful conversation with their royal highnesses—and with perfect ease!"

Everyone, including Andre, the Duke, the Duchess, Tubbs and eavesdroppers from the adjoining boxes laughed. Rodgers, reminded by the Duchess' comment "That stops that inning," turned to look at his team going back on the field.

"You'll have to excuse me now," he said to the royalty. "They need me now."

Powell May Meet Machen Or Vargas

SAN DIEGO (UPI) — Charlie Powell, who won an impressive victory over heavyweight challenger Nino Valdes last Wednesday, now is seeking a crack at Ruben Vargas or Eddie Machin, according to Matchmaker Ernie Fuentes.

"Both Powell and his manager, Joe Vella, told me they want to fight here," Fuentes said yesterday. "However, we want to make sure it's against a suitable opponent."

WARD UPSET BY SILVESTRI IN CITY GOLF

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Bob Silvestri had his second San Francisco city golf title today after an upset 1-up victory over two-time national amateur king Harvie Ward.

Some 12,000 fans watched yesterday's final match as Silvestri moved to a 3-up lead 3 holes to go, only to lose the 34th and 35th holes. But on number 36, both men parred, and Silvestri had his victory.

It was the sixth time Silvestri, a South San Francisco driving range proprietor, had competed in the tournament's finals. Ward, a San Francisco auto salesman, has now been in the finals three times and won the tournament once.

Broncs Edge Dons, Clinch Second Place

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Santa Clara closed out the West Coast Athletic Conference season in second place with a 70-64 victory over San Francisco's Dons and a near-riot in the losers' new Memorial Stadium.

The last two points were netted by the Broncos' Jim Russi, who had sustained a bop on the head by USF's Charlie Range. Russi, somewhat put out, was restrained by three teammates.

Police moved in when several irate fans started down from the stands, but the ruckus cooled quickly as Russi sank a personal foul shot and then a technical.

Santa Clara came back from a 35-23 deficit. Russi was high scorer for the game with 23. USF's Fred LaCour sank 22 and John Cunningham got 21.

St. Mary's finished first with an 11-1 WCAC mark, followed by Santa Clara with 9-3, Pepperdine 8-4, College of the Pacific 6-6, Loyola of Los Angeles 4-8, USF 3-9 and San Jose State 1-11.

Elliott Wins Mile In 4:04.1; Bowden Finishes Fourth

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) —World record-holder Herb Elliott won the Invitation Mile at Olympic Park today in 4:04.1 as Californian Don Bowden finished fourth. Bowden was timed in 4:09.5.

Merv Lincoln was second in 4:05.5, eight yards behind Elliott. John Murry ran third in 4:06.9 and was eight yards farther back. They and Elliott are Australians.

Elliott, in command from the gun, was content in the first lap to remain in fifth position in a field of seven, but never took his eyes off Lincoln.

Wins Squash Title

Joe Holmes of San Francisco downed Jim Frolik of the host San Francisco Olympic Club, 3-0, to earn the Class B championship.

Chiropractor's Role in Health Explained
by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

Do you know what a chiropractor does? Many folks make the mistake of thinking that a chiropractor gives massages to people with sore backs. That's far from the truth.

Actually, a doctor of Chiropractic works with a person's nerves. You see, the center for all nerves is in the brain. These nerves flow down through the spine to all parts of the body.

Often these soft nerves are pinched by the hard bones of the spine. Sickness then results . . . for no part of the body can work properly without nerve energy from the brain.

By correcting defects in the spine, chiropractors have been able to restore this nerve energy and help folks with almost every type of sickness you can name.

Chiropractors use X-ray and other scientific instruments to determine whether your spine is in line. They have been so successful in getting sick people well that more than 500 insurance companies now pay claims for Chiropractic care.

For additional information on Chiropractic care (Palmer Method) write Dr. Robert W. Pearce at 1628 Fifth avenue in San Rafael, or address a card or letter to Dr. R. W. Pearce in care of Independent-Journal Box 725, or call GL 3-6201. Advertisement

Ted Wants 18 Homers To Reach 500 Mark, Then May Call It Quits

CONNOLLY

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz.—This area's famed VIP (very important person) is Ted Williams, the splendid splinter who flogs home runs as an outfielder for the paltry pittance of $125,000 a season for the Boston Red Sox.

The sad and thoroughly unbelievable stories of Ted never seem to end. If he is irritable, they say he's a prima donna; if he's polite, they say he's currying favor. The guy can't win, either way.

But to one old squirt who remembers him when he busted in with San Diego back in 1936, and played with the Padres during 1937, Ted is anything but the weary and crestfallen idol he so often is painted.

Williams, at 41 years of age, and who has been with the Boston Club since 1939, looks like a fellow with the mileage of a 30-year oldster. Tall, slender and still a handsome youngster, Ted was the essence of politeness.

"I'm constantly under pressure from spring training to the end of the season," he told me. "I like it, in my own sort of way, because it keeps me on my toes. I realize the fans expect me to do things that were easy six or seven years ago. Now, sometimes, its difficult to do.

"BUT I'M 41 and I can't always produce for them like I would like to do. But I'm interested in delivering. This could be my last season, and I'd like to crack out 18 homeruns to hit the 500 mark."

The winner of six American League batting titles, who has belted 482 homeruns, has a lifetime average of .349, a fielding average of .974, and had grand slammed 17 home runs. Ted is justly proud.

To be sure, Ted has slowed up some. He never was a swifty on the paths. Now you might even hear some envious guys say he is a double play hitter. But once the Red Sox take to the road, it's Ted the cash customers want to see. And they've proven it over the last two decades.

John Malaney, the Sox public relations boss and old time baseball scribner, points out that Ted is good for 15 to 20 thousand extra fans in every game on the road.

"IF WE didn't have Williams, you could say without fear of contradiction that we'd have at least 10,000 fewer fans at every road game we play," Malaney declares.

"I don't say that to belittle our other great players, but to point out an actual fact. He's the biggest attraction in baseball today, and has been, since the time of Babe Ruth."

Even in this plush little desert town that five years ago had only 800 inhabitants, and today has 12,500, Ted is the magnet who fills the park with 3,000 watchers.

Two people stop traffic in Scottsdale, where they have no sidewalks or red or green traffic signals . . . one is the horse and the other is Ted Williams.

The nicest part of this sunny and sometimes windy area is the mansions of Horace Stoneham, P. K. Wrigley and Dizzy Dean.

We drove out to Dean's home today and learned the great one is on a golfing mission for Falstaff Beer.

BUT WE got to see his home. The 15 acres that surround it are covered with Arizona tree-sweetened grapefruit.

Wrigley's home is within seeing distance of the Scottsdale ball park, and is identical to the Wrigley home on Catalina Island. It rests on a high mountain, looking all over Paradise Valley and is a treat for sore eyes.

Stoneham's residence, not far off, likewise challenges the imagination.

Bucky Harris, the general manager of the Red Sox, who succeeded Joe Cronin when the latter took over as president of the American League, is well pleased with the ginger of his squad.

A LOT of northern Californians are searching for jobs on the Red Sox roster. One of these, of course, is Pumpsie Green, the boy from Oakland who is challenging for a shortstop berth. Up from Minneapolis, Green is an all-around infielder, but prefers shortstop. He has a rough job cut out for him against such talent as Frank Malzone at third, Pete Runnels at second and another up and coming all-round performer named Ted Lepcio.

Other neighborhood citizens here included outfielders Jack Jensen and Marty Keough of Oakland; Bill Renna from Hanford; Pete Daley from Grass Valley; Don Giles of Modesto, and a pitcher named Ted Wills from Fresno.

Haywood Sullivan, former Seal, and Eddie Sadowski are a couple of sturdy catchers who are trying to horn in on Sammy White who seems to have the first string catching job nailed down, if his hitting improves.

AND BY THE WAY, Higgins, whom I knew as Pinkey, former third sacker with Portland, has one of our closest friends as his first assistant—Del Baker, former Seal, Oak and Portland backstop of many years back.

To try and evaluate the Red Sox pitching would be suicide. As Skipper Higgins says, "I'm open minded on anybody who can pitch winning ball."

Tom Brewer and Ike Delock won 12 and 14 games, respectively, last year. Others who have done their share are Franklin Sullivan with 13 and 9; Murray Wall with 8 and 9; Dave Sisler with 8 and 9; and Leo Kiely, a southpaw who won 5 and 2. There are others, but to me they are just names at the present.

Pro Netters In Boston

BOSTON (AP) — The world's professional tennis tour, led by champion Pancho Gonzales and Aussie ace Lew Hoad, moves into the Boston Garden tonight for a two-day stand.

Gonzales and Hoad will meet in singles each night for a purse of $1,200 put up by promoter Jack Kramer. Gonzales currently leads on the tour, 9-3.

Title Bout Site Announcement Slated Tomorrow

NEW YORK (UPI)—Promoter Bill Rosensohn will announce tomorrow the city where the Floyd Patterson-Ingemar Johansson world heavyweight title fight is to be staged.

Rosensohn doubted, however, that he would disclose the date tomorrow; for he must first visit the city selected and decide there upon a date that would not be in conflict with other scheduled attractions in that city.

"Because Baltimore and Minneapolis may be raising their bids for the fight," the promoter said, "I won't be able to decide on the site until tonight or tomorrow morning."

OUCH! MY ACHING FINGERS

Los Angeles All-Star goalie Jerry Calder not only lets a goal slip by, but gets his fingers stepped on as well during soccer game in L.A. yesterday with team from Halsingborg, Sweden. Doing the damage to Calder's pinkies is Sweden's Sylve Bengtsson. The goal was good and the Swedes went on to a 6-0 victory. (AP Wirephoto)

Silver Spoon 'Certainty' For Ky. Derby

ARCADIA (AP) — They will have to enter another filly in the Santa Anita Derby record book today. And next May they may have to do the same for the Kentucky Derby.

The reason: Fleet, fighting Silver Spoon.

Whipping nine colts in the process, the daughter of the great Citation became the second filly to win this race. The King Ranch's Ciencia did it in 1939.

Today it appeared that Silver Spoon is almost a certainty to head for Churchill Downs and the Kentucky Derby.

Only once has a filly won that race—Regret in 1915.

NO FLUKE

There was nothing flukey about Silver Spoon's victory, her sixth without a defeat in as many races here. The margin was 2½ lengths over a strong, developing colt, Royal Orbit.

In her first run against colts, Silver Spoon whipped such as Finnegan and Ole Fols, who had beaten Tomy Lee, runner-up last year to First Landing for 2-year-old honors.

"We'll wait a week or so," said Whitney, "and if Silver Spoon came out of the derby without mishap, we'll send her into the Kentucky Derby.

Her time for the mile and one-eight here was a fast 1.49, just shy of the fastest Santa Anita Derby time, the 1.48 4-5 made by Your Host in 1950.

Can she travel the Kentucky Derby mile and one-quarter?

"I believe she can," said Whitney.

Jones Dinner Tickets Are Still Available

Ticket sales for the "Vic Jones Testimonial Dinner" Wednesday night of this week indicate more than 300 men will be on hand to honor the retired San Rafael High School coach and teacher, the sponsoring San Rafael Athletic Assn. reported today.

A few tickets remain on sale at the Taveggia-Brusati Sports Shop, 1340 Fourth street, San Rafael, the SRAA said. They should be purchased before Wednesday.

The testimonial dinner will be held at Trader Horn's, formerly Hamie's Chuck Wagon, in San Rafael starting at 6:30 o'clock. Some out-of-state former students of Jones have said they will attend, including Harry "Jake" Obitz, head golf professional at Shawnee-On-Delaware, Pa.

Jones, who retired in 1957, spent 38 years as a coach and teacher, the last 33 at San Rafael High where he served as an athletic director and coach, industrial arts instructor and attendance officer.

Among his most cherished coaching records, he says, is the fact that none of his football teams ever lost a game to arch-rival Tamalpais High.

Miles Wins Grand Prix At Pomona; Four Persons Hurt

POMONA (UPI)—Ken Miles of Hollywood ruled today as king of the 150-mile Grand Prix International Sports Car Race. It was marred by a track accident that injured four persons and mechanical troubles that forced more than a third of the cars to drop out.

Miles captured the lead from Bill Krause, of Sacramento, on the next to the last lap when Krause's 4.5 Maserati blew a tire. Krause managed to limp home in fourth place.

Piloting a Porsche Spyder, Miles toured Los Angeles County Fair Ground course in 1:44:22 for an average speed of 85.4 miles an hour. He pocketed $4,500 for his efforts.

The race was delayed for 45 minutes when Bruce Kessler's Sadler MK-II apparently hit an oil slick, crashed into an announcers' scaffold and smashed into four parked autos. Four persons were injured, none critically.

Kessler was thrown 30 feet into the air from the impact. Race Chairman Joseph J. Weissman, an attorney and president of the co-sponsoring California Sports Car Club, was on the platform and suffered minor injuries.

Kampschroeder, 47, a bowling house proprietor, paced the duo with a 716 set, his highest in 10 years. Brown, a 33-year-old farmer competing in his second ABC, rolled 593.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati has wrapped up the major college individual scoring title for the second straight year.

Lee Byrd of Marshall was runner-up with a 29.3 average.

Celts, Russell Rewrite NBA Record Books

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The Boston Celtics, runaway leaders of the Eastern Division, are leaving their mark in the National Basketball Assn.—and leaving it all through the league's record book.

The Celts accounted for no less than three records last night when they whipped the Cincinnati Royals, 141-131, at Boston. They set team records of 52 wins in a season (with one more game to go) and 67 games over the 100-point mark, and Celt center Bill Russell set a league season record of 1,588 rebounds.

In fact, if Cincinnati's Jack Twyman hadn't set a Boston Garden record with 19 baskets (part of a 45-point haul for the Royals star), the game could have been one of the season's most lop-sided.

NEW RECORDS

Boston's 52 wins break a league mark of 51 shared by the 1949-50 editions of Minneapolis, Syracuse, and the Rochester Royals. The 67 games at 100-plus-points breaks the mark of 66 set by New York last year. And Russell, by nabbing 25 rebounds in this game, eclipsed his own season record of 1,564.

The Royals had a 76-72 lead during the third period, but then fell behind to stay as Bill Sharman scored 19 points in that period for Boston en route to a game total of 29.

MOORE FIGHTS WRESTLER ON TEXAS CARD

ODESSA, Tex. (AP)—A wrestler who holds master and doctor degrees in psychology tonight will attempt to show Archie Moore, king of the light heavyweights, that a wrestler can whip a boxer.

Sterling "Dizzy" Davis of Houston, who both boxes and wrestles, will meet Moore in a local boxing card.

Besides a knowledge of psychology, Davis will depend on his righthand punches, which he says are the quickest and hardest in the world.

'Tennis Tips' Talk Wednesday At Recreation Center

Arvid Segerquist, professional tennis instructor from the California Tennis Club in San Francisco, will give a talk on "Tennis Tips" at the Southern Marin Recreation Center's Men's Night Wednesday at 6 o'clock, according to Recreation Director Howard Adams.

Center men members may swim before the 7:30 p.m. dinner, Adams said. Cards and chess will be offered after the speaker.

Littler Leads By 1 In New Orleans Open

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—Gene Littler of Singing Hills, Calif., entered the final round of the $20,000 New Orleans Open Golf Tournament today still leading the field of 60 top pros, but dangerously threatened by Baltimore's ace putter, Bill Collins.

Littler hung onto his lead yesterday with a 72-stroke par performance and entered the final day with a 54-hole mark of 76-64-72—209, one stroke ahead of Collins. The Californian jumped into the lead Saturday with a record-smashing eight-under-par 64.

Moe Norman of Toronto held down third place with 70-72-70—212.

Five players were tied in fourth place. Among them was PGA Champion Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla., who shot a 70 yesterday for a 213 total. Tied with Finsterwald were Bob Gajda of Bloomfield, Mich.; Wes Ellis Jr. of Aldecress, N.J., winner of the Texas Open in San Antonio, two weeks ago; Huston Laclair of Birmingham, Ala.; and Billy Maxwell of Odessa, Tex.

Bob Rosburg of Palo Alto, Calif., whose 68 was low yesterday, was tied at ninth with Walter Burkemo of Franklin Hills, Mich., and Marty Furgol of Cogs Hill, Ill. The trio all tallied 214.

So. Methodist All-Star Cager Killed In Fire

RUSTON, La. (AP) — Bobby James, the only junior selected on the 1959 All-Southwest Conference basketball team, died in a fire at his family home yesterday.

Funeral services for the 20-year-old outstanding Southern Methodist University athlete were to be held today, with six teammates as pallbearers.

A preliminary investigation indicated the blaze started in a bathroom wall heater and the youth apparently suffocated, fire chief James Mabry said.

James, 6 feet 5 inches tall, had been considered for All-America honors.

Active opposition to a bill to eliminate the House Un-American Activities Committee will also be given by the Auxiliary throughout the United States. The committee's record of effective work against subversive influence will be the basis of the Auxiliary's stand.

GARDEN SECTION

Corte Madera Club Meeting To Feature Film On Roses

The Garden Section of the Corte Madera Women's Club will present a new film "How to Grow Beautiful Roses" tomorrow at 2 p.m. A representative of the company which manufactures garden spray will accompany the film with a talk.

The picture shows the full year of techniques in rose culture, including fall clean-up, fall planting, pruning, spraying for such rose pests as scale and rust, and other points in rose care. Close-ups include many of the new All-American varieties of recent years.

Accompanying will be a picture, "How to Grow Beautiful African Violets and Gloxinias." This picture, which runs for 20 minutes, took more than a year to produce. It is filled with scores of visual "how-to-do-it" aids in the handling of these two favorite house plants. Some African Violets shown, among 50 specimens, are varieties being seen for the first time on the screen.

The showing of the film will be followed by a question and answer period, and the Garden Section of the Women's Club has opened the meeting to anyone who is interested in roses or these Gesneria family of house plants.

The money has been used for the purchase of two sets of encyclopedias and three record players and numerous records. Now, each class in the school has its own set of encyclopedias and record player for classroom use.

The proceeds from the February hot dog sale were presented to the Junior Museum of Marin, which is currently conducting its annual fund drive.

Sausalito Club Is To Observe Forty-Sixth Anniversary Mar. 19

Something entirely different, using new and novel ideas formulated for this production and never before seen at a Founders' Day Luncheon and Jinks has been conceived for the Sausalito Woman's Club's 46th anniversary of the founding of the club on March 19.

Because secrecy has always been the watchword for the production of the HiJinks, "no hint can be given, except that members attending the luncheon are in store for a novel treat," says Mrs. Richard F. Phillips, first vice president and general chairman of the day.

Since the inception of the club in 1913, Founders' Day has always been commemorated in March and this year special tribute to Miss Fannie Shoobert, only surviving member of the 10 original founders, will be made as well as honoring all the presidents, past and present.

Among the many traditions of the birthday celebration is the serving of the old members by the members who have been taken into the club since the last Founders' Day and the singing of a special song composed for the occasion many years ago and which traditionally opens the Founders' Day ceremonies. Mrs. Frank E. Rossman is directing the singers for this old custom and Mrs. Delman Smith is in charge of the serving.

This year a musical background by Mrs. Rossman will accompany the reading of the Club Collect by Mrs. James S. Wyatt. The pledge of allegiance to the flag will be led by Mrs. Loren L. Jay.

Special places are reserved for the honored guests and Mrs. John E. Koenig is arranging the seating with attractive place cards designed and made by Mrs. Charles H. Merrill Jr.

Unusual decorations for the tables and throughout the clubhouse are being designed and created by Mrs. Emmet Rixford and her committee: Mesdames Sydney F. Hyde, Frank T. Greene and Douglas Kerr.

Greeting members at the door will be Mrs. Robert Anderson and Mrs. Brookner Brady and checking them in will be Mrs. L. S. M. Beckett.

Invitations to the affair have been sent out by Mrs. Harold Treacy.

Mistress of ceremonies for the day will be Mrs. Howard Seivers, president of the club from 1950-52.

For the Hi-Jinks, Mrs. Fred M. Tetzlaff and her committee have prepared a diverting performance. Author and director of the production is Mrs. Tetzlaff. Directing the music is Dr. Harold Rosenblum whose wife is a member of the club.

The sets and costumes have been designed by Mrs. Alexander Imlay who is also seeing to the construction of the sets. Mrs. Miriam Brecka is in charge of the costumes.

Production manager is Mrs. John Brebner, and co-ordinating this new and unusual idea in entertainment is Mrs. Henry Swart.

Mrs. Douglas Kerr is acting as advisor.

New members taken into the club this past year are Mesdames Frank Bosh, Ernest Bowman, Martin Bronstein, Matthew Dooley, George Eastman, Glen Hall, William Kuder, Robert LaFontaine, Bryon Rowlands, Nathan Smith, John Sweeny, Wint F. Saint, William H. Johnston, Henry Swart, Raymond Gergus, Max Pollack, H. C. McVean Jr., Joseph Cox and Jacques Johnet and Miss C. B. Shillig.

Neil Cummins Will Hear Talk Driver Training

When a youth of 16 receives his driver's license, does it necessarily mean that he has reached an age of responsibility also?

That, among others, is one of the answers which will be provided by Dr. John Eales, consultant in secondary education with the California State Department of Education in a talk before the Neil Cummins School P-TA and interested parents and educators on Wednesday in the school's all-purpose room. The time will be 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Eales is nationally known as an authority on the subject of driver training in secondary schools. He has written many articles on this program in magazines of national scope.

Since the tax issue threatened to take this educational program from Tam High School District, parents will have many questions to ask of Dr. Eales as to the costs per pupil, the requirements for qualified teachers and whether sufficient funds will be forthcoming from the state to carry on a full program. Last year, for instance, 250 students wanted to take the training, but only 50 were able to be accommodated. Also of interest, is the bill before the Legislature at the present time in which the minimum age may be raised to 18 years.

Mrs. Addison J. Mooney, as Juvenile Protection chairman for Neil Cummins P-TA, will present Dr. Eales. Refreshments will be served at 7:30 by the third grade mothers and the colors will be marched in by Girl Scout Troop No. 114, honoring Scout Safety Month.

March is election month in P-TA and the following names have been offered as the nominated slate of officers for the following year: president, Mrs. C. W. Valk; first vice president, Mrs. Mort J. Simon; second vice president, Mr. Carl Tivel; treasure, Mrs. Anthony Vranjos; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Dean Short; recording secretary, Mrs. L. Jay Simon; auditor, Mrs. Earl Nilsen, and historian, Mrs. John Fraser.

Influence Of Color

ST. PAUL, Minn. (UPI)—Coloring in a room has more to it than meets the eye.

Some colors may induce fatigue, like a bright turquoise against bright red, while other color combinations may cut down working efficiency or cause adverse moods, warned home economist Gertrude Esteros. She said color selections for homes are too often based on fashion or personal whim, with no consideration for practical factors.

This figure varies from day to day—nobody knows what it will be, even at the I-J. Nearly 100% of the 25,000-plus I-J circulation is home delivered, but sales are also made daily at newsstands, stores, and from street stands.

3. The estimate nearest to the correct figure will be the winner. If more than one person sends in the winning number, the $100 prize will be divided equally. Only one award given per family.

4. Members of the I-J staff, employees of this newspaper, and their families are not eligible for the cash prize.

5. Mail or bring this COMPLETE PAGE to the Independent-Journal. If mailed, entry must be postmarked not later than Midnight, Monday, March 9, 1959. It may be delivered to the I-J not later than 5:30 p.m. on Monday, March 9, 1959.

6. Announcement of the winner will be made in the Independent-Journal of Saturday, March 14, 1959, or as soon thereafter as possible.

CLUES TO HELP YOU WIN

The I-J's average daily net paid circulation for 3 months ending March 31, 1955, was 18,945. For 1956 this figure was 20,916 . . . in 1957, 22,926; and for 1958 it was 24,680. These were averages, of course—the count varied from day to day.

You can take it from there. Good luck!

Guidance Counsellor

At Age 6 They Begin Learning, Some To Loaf, Others To Fail

We start our youngsters in the first grade when they're 6. Most of 'em move along year by year till they graduate. They're grouped chiefly by age throughout. Is that a good way to group pupils? Let's take a look.

Our present arrangement was invented about 100 years ago. It was a big improvement then. Now we see flaws. The big weakness is that it assumes kids of the same age are alike. It assumes they'll learn the same things, at the same time, with about the same results. But we know now that's impossible. They're too different.

Here's an example. I checked a regular ninth grade class in a good school. The kids were within 12 months of each other in age. But some were reading at the college level, others at the fourth grade level. The top I.Q. was 150 and the low, 80. The teacher was trying to adjust her work to their different abilities, but she couldn't. Differences were too great. The result? The bright children were learning to loaf and the dull ones were learning failure was inevitable. It's the same in most classes.

A few schools are trying other grouping plans. One idea is to put all 6 year olds into a "primary block." They are studied. Then they're grouped and taught at their proper speed. Some of them get through the work usually assigned to the first three grades in two years. Some in four. There are no promotions. No failures either.

We need to try out many plans. Here's a suggestion for you. Many school folks are dissatisfied with our present grouping. They want to work out something better. But they're afraid to try. They think we parents would stop them. Will you pass the word to your principal that you too see what's wrong with our arrangement? Maybe you can help him invent the new plan all schools need.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Auto Pioneer Dies

DEERFIELD, Mass. (UPI) — Funeral services will be held tomorrow for Hinsdale Smith, credited with inventing the convertible automobile, the modern steering wheel and the roll-down car window.

Smith operated one of the world's first auto body factories from 1900 to 1914 at Springfield where he built and named where he built and named the first convertible car. He fashioned the steering wheel to replace the steering bar formerly used on Henry Ford's first vehicles and on Stanley Steamers and other early autos.

He is also credited with moving the automobile engine from the rear of the car to the front.

His patent rights were scattered throughout automotive industry. Even today Smith's inventions form a basis for much of the design and construction of trucks and cars.

'Bigness' Vs. Liberty Studied At ACLU Meet

By BETSY M. WOODMAN

Threats to individual freedom by bigness in labor, government, and particularly business seemed to concern American Civil Liberties Union conferees most seriously at their Saturday workshop sessions at Marin Country Day School in Corte Madera.

Without labeling bigness per se as evil, the participants felt the few in control of business or labor usually were too distant for individuals to obtain satisfactory recourse. Individuals also resent the manipulation of their lives by great business combinations which can rob a person of his right to choose.

BIGGEST TURNOUT

The workshop on "Bigness in Business, Government and Labor" drew the biggest turnout of four sessions Saturday. Source material for it was presented by Paul Williams of Berkeley, researcher and economist for the California State Chamber of Commerce. Gordon W. Strawbridge of Mill Valley was moderator.

The three other workshops of the conference found that in their areas emphasis was the present need to encourage the use of rights rather than to battle their suppression.

CLASSROOM FREEDOM

Dr. Samuel N. LeCount, director of adult education at College of Marin, led the talks on "Freedom in the Classroom." He reported his group's consensus that teachers should be free to discuss any topic commensurate with class maturity; that teachers should be fundamentally resource persons and stimulators, not authoritarians; that they should encourage free inquiry but not use their positions of authority to influence opinion. It was noted that one "can't teach freedoms by talking about freedoms—they must be practiced."

Discussion on "Church and State" was led by Rev. E. C. Vanderlaan and moderated by Frank Moncreif. A general conclusion was that there should be no religious indoctrination in public schools. Courses about comparative religion in high school, with competent teachers, would be proper. It was felt that religious training belongs more to homes and churches, that schools are not committed to the life training of children who learn in other places besides school.

NEWS CENSORSHIP

The field of censorship was introduced by Steven Warshaw of the San Francisco News with James Moore as the moderator. Mrs. Salem Rice, reporter, indicated this group recognized the need for censorship to a degree in areas of government during negotiation, but thought by and large there was too much and the subject needed frequent challenging to keep it open for reconsideration.

There was no agreement within the group concerning a definition of obscene literature or ways to keep it from those who might be hurt by it.

In the final general session, Dr. Alfred Azevedo, who presided, made it clear that the liberties were sought for all persons, not a specialized group, that liberalism means method rather than content, and that the social and moral responsibility of individuals is of vital importance.

Theodore Roosevelt became the first president of the United States to ride in an automobile, in 1902.

Other officers elected are Harry Slater of Vallejo, administrative vice president; Maj. Robert F. Merritt, educational vice president; Maj. Kenneth G. Clark, Corte Madera, secretary; Robert Dunn, San Rafael, treasurer; Maj. Leonard Mares, Fresno, sergeant-at-arms.

Installation ceremonies will be held April 11 at the Hamilton Officers Club cabana, at a joint meeting of the Hamilton group with Marin's three other toastmaster clubs.

S.F. Blue Baby Arrives In Chicago For Surgery

CHICAGO (AP) — A little boy with an ailing heart was in a Chicago hospital today awaiting surgery and a possible chance for a normal life.

His parents are optimistic the operation will be a success.

So is the doctor who will perform the operation to correct a "blue baby" condition suffered by the 2½-year-old boy, David Stewart, since he was six weeks old.

Among the prayers offered for David's recovery will be those by the thousands of residents of the San Francisco Bay area whose donations made the trip to Chicago and the operation possible. Their contributions of nearly $10,000 financed the trip and the operation, scheduled for Thursday.

David's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stewart of Sharp Park, accompanied their son on a flight from San Francisco yesterday. The plane was equipped with a special mask and two bottles of oxygen but the ailing boy did not need them.

"We are extremely grateful for the generosity of the people in California and for the kindness of those we have met in Chicago," said Stewart, 25, an insurance salesman.

"Prayers will bring the boy through," David's parents said. Mrs. Stewart added: "I know the operation will be a success."

Dr. Thomas G. Baffes, who developed the first surgical correction of one of the types of "blue baby" conditions known as transposition of the great vessels of the heart, will perform the operation. A successful operation would allow David to live a more normal life. However, he will require more surgery later.

Dr. Baffes said the odds are 6 to 1 in David's favor.

"If the operation fails," Stewart said, "we'll give what's left of the money to someone who might need it for the same trouble."

"But," he added firmly, "David will recover."

SAN ANSELMAN WINNER OF RADIO CONTEST

An enterprising San Anselmo man, Ken Schaefer, of 21 Kenrick drive, thrust his arm into the Sausalito police car that was conveying KCBS radio personality Owen Spann to Sausalito City Plaza on Saturday morning, his hand was grasped by Spann, and Schaefer thus became the winner of 52 weeks of free entertainment in Bay Area amusement spots for himself and his wife.

A crowd of more than 100 people had gathered at the plaza after Spann gave clues in couplet form identifying the spot where he would appear. Similar contests will be held the next two Saturdays at other Bay Area locations.

New Honor For Star 4-H Member

Another honor has come to Jim McNern, outstanding Marin County 4-H Club member. McNern was one of 12 California 4-H Club members selected from a group of 79 applicants as candidates for the Diamond Star Award. Four Diamond Stars will be chosen from the 12 candidates and will represent the state at the National 4-H Club Conference in Washington, D.C. this summer.

Young McNern, who will be 20 next month, is a national winner of the Santa Fe college scholarship for boys leadership and has twice attended the National Congress, once as state and once as sectional winner. He is the son of Mrs. Margaret McNern of Novato and is in his sophomore year at College of Marin. He plans to go on to the University of California at Davis, majoring in agricultural education.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Gifts To Charity May Be Deducted

By PETER J. WIKEL, CPA

Peter J. Wikel

Your charitable contributions are deductible up to 30 per cent of your adjusted gross income provided that at least 10 per cent is to churches, educational institutions or tax exempt hospitals. Otherwise your contributions are deductible up to 20 per cent of your adjusted gross income.

Contributions, to be deductible for 1958, must have been paid in 1958. It is not enough to have pledged to contribute at a later date. Payment must have been made in 1958.

Payments in money or property are equally deductible. If a contribution was made in property, the amount of the deduction is the fair market value of the property at the time the contribution was made.

This has interesting possibilities.

Assume that you purchased a piece of real estate for $5,000 in 1940 and that you made a contribution of this piece of real estate in 1958 and its fair market value at the time of the contribution was $10,000. You receive credit for the contribution of $10,000 but you do not pay tax on your gain of $5,000.

However, if you sold the real estate for $10,000 and contributed the $10,000 you would be taxed on your long term capital gain of $5,000. It does not matter if the recipient of the contribution immediately sells the property. All forms of property may be contributed—stocks and bonds, automobiles, furniture, fixtures, equipment, clothing, etc.

To be deductible, your contributions must be to a religious, charitable, educational, scientific or literary organization; or an organization for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, except when such organization is operated for personal profit or to conduct propaganda or attempt to influence legislation.

Also deductible are gifts to fraternal organizations if they are to be used for charitable or religious purposes, and gifts to veterans organizations. Gifts to governmental agencies for public purposes, etc.

Do not deduct political campaign contributions or contributions to any organizations that devote a good part of their activities to propogande, lobbying or trying to influence legislation, even for a worthwhile purpose.

SEVENTH GRADERS HEAT HOUSE FROM SUN

Janet Suthey and Carol Krone, members of Mrs. Margaret Gustafson's seventh grade science class at Edna Maguire School in Mill Valley, show model of solar house which they will exhibit in Marin Science Fair at Tamalpais High School on March 17-18. The house is heated by collecting the rays of the sun (simulated by light bulb in model) through series of pipes which pass through Glauber's salt in closet unit. The salt retains the heat from the sun's rays which is then released through radiators to heat house. It works, too.

Bullard Jr. To Head United Crusade Drive

Edward W. Bullard Jr. of Ross, vice president in charge of sales of E. D. Bullard Co., has accepted appointment as Marin's 1959 campaign chairman for the United Crusade, it was announced today by Mrs. Thomas J. Mellon, president of Marin United Fund.

Bullard will supervise and direct the 3,000 volunteers needed to complete solicitation in the county. Organization is now under way and recruitment will continue so that adequate training may be given to the recruits before the campaign opens in October, Mrs. Mellon said.

Bullard is finance chairman of Marin County Council of Girl Scouts, and so acquainted with the financial problems of United Crusade agencies.

He and his family live on Shady Lane, Ross, where he is a member of St. John's Episcopal Church and the Lagunitas Club. His wife, Marion, while busy with the four children, Jed, 10, Elizabeth, 7, Esther, 6, and Brian, 2, is also on the Sunday School staff of the church.
